South Korea Ship Repels Red Attack

Torpedo Boat Attempt To Land Spies Alleged

SEOUL, South Korea (AP) — A South Korean navy frigate today repelled a North Korean torpedo boat attack which the navy claimed was designed to cover an attempt to land Red agents.

The navy said the encounter was over in less than five minutes and the three attacking craft fled into dense fog when the 1,200-ton frigate returned fire. The frigate suffered no crew casualties or material damage, a spokesman said.

It was not known whether the attackers were hit.

The Reds attacked 15 miles off the east coast, about two miles south of the truce demarcation line separating North and South Korea, the navy said.

LANDING SPIES

The navy communique expressed belief the Communists were trying to land spies or saboteurs in South Korea to "take advantage of the April 26 political upheaval."

Such naval clashes have taken place in the past, but it was the first Red attack since the uprising following the March 15 presidential elections forced the resignation of President Syngman Rhee.

The navy said it had increased its patrols off both the east and west coasts to block Red attempts to land agents behind the land frontier patrolled by South Korean and U.N. forces.

MOVES BOUNDARY

The navy also moved the northern boundary for east coast fishing three miles to the south to keep South Korean fishermen away from Communist attackers.

South Korean students paraded for the fourth straight day through the port city of Pusan demanding election of a new National Assembly. Two thousand high school pupils marched three miles, chanting slogans, until they were dispersed by troops at the city hall plaza.

Marin Senator Enters Drug Ad Dispute

Drake Pharmacy's campaign to advertise the prices of its common prescription drugs got a new supporter today in the person of State Sen. John F. McCarthy.

"This is just another round in the over-all fight to hold down costs of prescription drugs here in Marin," said the senator.

He led an unsuccessful effort at the last session of the legislature to exempt prescription drugs from state sales taxes.

McCarthy said he has been advised that the state Board of Pharmacy has scheduled hearings on a proposed regulation which would restrict drug store advertising.

"I have every reason to believe this action by the state Board of Pharmacy was a direct result of the case of the Marin County pharmacy that ran a price list of prescription drugs in a newspaper ad recently," McCarthy said.

The pharmacy board hearing in Fresno on May 19 apparently would attempt to authorize the board to adopt rules fixing prices and controling advertis-

Administration Unveils Its Care Program

$1.2 Billion Urged In Medic Subsidies For Aged Citizens

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The administration today unveiled a sweeping voluntary medical care program for the elderly. It called for $1,200,000,000 in federal-state subsidies to help people over 65 cope with major illness.

The long-range price placed on the program would make it the most costly new federal subsidy project recommended by the administration since President Eisenhower took office.

THE BENEFITS

It would cost individuals $24 a year to join. Benefits would include most of the cost of 180 days of hospitalization, 365 days of home nursing care, up to $350 worth of prescription drugs and certain medical and dental services.

Initial reaction from congressional Democrats was chilly. Some charged the states could not afford to pay the 600 million dollars that would be their half share of the cost. Others charged that it was "more socialistic" than the Democratic Forand health plan.

MORE SWEEPING

Its benefits would be more sweeping and inclusive than the Forand plan. However, the Forand plan, which would be tied into the social security system, would not require beneficiaries to pay certain initial medical costs proposed by the administration.

Republicans spoke favorably of the administration approach to the problem, which has been shaping up as a major election issue. It was drafted after some controversy among administration officials over the kind of program to be offered.

UP TO STATES

It provides that the states could use "private organizations" to conduct their programs under state supervision, or they could operate on their own without such aid. Action by state legislatures would be required for any state to take part.

More than 12 million persons would be eligible for the administration program, dubbed "Medicare" by Welfare Secretary Arthur S. Flemming.

Single persons joining the program would be required to pay the first $250 of hospitalization-medical costs and 20 per cent of the remaining costs until benefits were exhausted. After that they would have to pay all costs.

Married couples would pay the first $400 of costs. On the

2 Youths Nabbed In Holdup Of Church Party In Fairfax

HELD IN CHURCH ROBBERY — Harry Lester Huffman (left) and Robert Alexander Donohoe (right) are seen entering cells at Marin County Jail, with Chief Jailer Frank Christ standing by. Both were booked on suspicion of robbery in the 25-cent holdup last night of a whist party at St. Rita's Church social hall in Fairfax. Huffman is suspected of being the masked robber who wielded a sawed-off rifle; Donohoe of driving the getaway car. (Independent-Journal photos)

Loot Totals 25 Cents In Brazen Robbery

A rookie sheriff's patrolman last night nabbed two suspects a half hour after the holdup of a church whist party at St. Rita's Church in Fairfax.

One of the pair, Harry Lester Huffman, 16, of 4 Hamilton court, San Rafael, was identified as the youth who walked into the church recreation hall, jammed a sawed-off rifle against a parishioner's stomach in the presence of a crowd of 140 people, and ran out with the contribution box.

The other is Robert Alexander Donohoe, 20, of 42 Hillview drive, San Rafael, identified as driver of the getaway car.

They were nabbed in Marinwood by Sheriff's Deputy Martin Novitski and Highway Patrolman Jack Courtier, a half hour after the 9 p.m. holdup.

Novitski joined the sheriff's force only four months ago and was put on patrol only this week after training in the sheriff's office at the courthouse.

The church hall at 2100 Sir Francis Drake boulevard in Fairfax was filled with parishioners attending a social event to raise money for the parish building fund.

Rev. Albert T. Duffy, the parish priest, said the contribution box had just been emptied of donations placed in it by the whist players. A single quarter was left in the box.

The youth, a handkerchief over his face and sawed-off rifle in hand, entered the church hall, walked straight to the contribution box, and jammed his gun barrel against the stomach of George T. Smith of 75 Medway road, San Anselmo, who was standing beside the box.

He grabbed the box and fled without saying a word. Fully half of the crowd in the hall was unaware of the holdup, said Father Duffy.

Outside, the youth's confederate waited in a car with motor running. It sped off fast on Drake boulevard.

Albert Fox, former vice mayor of Fairfax, saw the holdup, ran to a window and got part of the license number of the fleeing vehicle. He telephoned the alarm to the sheriff's office.

Two minutes later, Police Chief Clifton Cordes, who was off duty and driving his own car, arrived at the church. He had heard the alarm flashed on the police radio network.

Cordes sped off fast on Drake boulevard to pursue the robbery car.

Deputy Novitski, cruising north of San Rafael, was called by sheriff's radio and told to cover Lucas Valley road behind Marinwood. As he reached that road, he saw a car with the license numbers that were broadcast turn into Marinwood.

Novitski pursued the vehicle to Blackstone drive, where he was joined by Highway Patrolman Courtier. Together, they stopped the car and arrested Huffman and Donohoe.

Sheriff's officers said the pair apparently turned off Drake boulevard at the Nicasio road and doubled back through Lucas Valley.

Roadblocks had been thrown up throughout the county to trap the getaway car.

Deputy Sheriff William Brust searched the car and found a .22 caliber repeating rifle, sawed off to about 12 inches in over-all length, loaded with seven rounds of ammunition.

The youths were booked for investigation of robbery, with a hold for the U. S. Treasury Department for possession of an illegal firearm.

Undersheriff Eugene Meyer commended Novitski for excellent police work and declared, "Cooperation among all law enforcement agencies, including the California Highway Patrol, and the new system of roadblocks are really proving effective."

San Rafael police said Dono-

Cemeteries Spurn Chessman's Ashes

The ashes of executed convict-author Caryl Chessman remain at a San Rafael crematorium today after being barred from the Los Angeles cemetery where his mother was entombed 11 years ago.

Forest Lawn Memorial Park, the final resting place of many Hollywood movie stars, refused to accept Chessman's ashes yesterday on the grounds he was an agnostic and had not expressed repentence.

Lewis K. Gough, vice president of the cemetery issued a statement saying: "We have an honored trust to maintain. . . . We do not feel we would be keeping faith with those who rest here if we allow him to be entombed at Forest Lawn."

Cecil W. Myers, chairman of the board of the Abby of the Chimes Funeral Corp., which operates Fernwood Memorial Park in Sausalito, reported last night, between 6:30 and 11 o'clock he "was flooded with from 25 to 30 calls from people volunteerng to have Chessman buried" in Fernwood Memorial Park.

Myers, however, said he subscribed to the policy of Forest Lawn, saying although he "did not begrudge Chessman a decent burial," his "crusade against Christianity right up to the end" prevented his burial at a memorial park dedicated to Christian burial.

Chessman made his own funeral arrangements before his execution in the San Quentin Prison gas chamber Monday. He was convicted on 17 felonies including kidnaping, sex perversion and robbery in Los Angeles in 1948.

The Harry M. Williams Mortuary of San Rafael is handling the remains. Chessman was cremated yesterday at Mt. Tamalpais Cemetery where his ashes are now awaiting a burial place.

"We are not worried . . . These little things happen all the time," Harry M. Williams, owner of the San Rafael mortuary, said today. He said he planned to confer with Rosalie Asher, executrix of the convict's estate, later today.

L. A. Wirin, one of Chessman's attorneys said in Los Angeles he would recommend to Miss Asher that a court order be requested requiring Forest Lawn to accept the remains. Chessman's mother was buried in the Southern California cemetery the year after her son was convicted as the "Red Light Bandit."

Bids Opened For Novato Hospital Job

A Sonoma County contracting firm today offered the low bid of four submitted for construction of a 30-bed hospital in Novato.

Wright and Oretsky of Santa Rosa bid $286,000 for the job, which had been estimated by the hospital directors at $300,000. Other bids were: Richard Zoellner of Ross, $288,266; Plant Brothers of San Francisco, $302,377, and Wilco Construction Co. of San Francisco, $309,000.

The bids were opened in the San Francisco office of the architect, George T. Rockrise. An additional $30,000 is expected to be spent for equipment.

A meeting of the hospital corporation board was scheduled for 7:30 a.m. tomorrow at Rickey's Rancho Rafael, accord-

Novato Youth Wanted In Murder Probe

A 14-year-old Novato boy, caught Monday night for burglarizing the Lynwood School last weekend, is wanted for questioning in connection with the rape-slaying of a girl in the state of Washington, according to sheriff's investigators.

Sheriff's deputies also learned that the boy's father was stabbed to death in Tennessee several years ago. Officers said the boy boasted he had learned the art of safecracking from an uncle, reported to be serving time in Walla Walla State Prison in Washington.

The boy, a runaway from a mental hospital in the Washington, told officers he was 10 years old when he accompanied his uncle on a safe-peeling job.

His mother, Ida Mae Carter, 36, of Bobo's Trailer Court, Novato, was also arrested Monday on suspicion of contributing to the delinquency of her sons. She is suspected of receiving money stolen from the Lynwood School. She was to appear in Marin Municipal Court this afternoon with the public defender. She was arrested in a bar.

The 14-year-old, his 11-year-old brother, and a friend, 11, admitted breaking into Lynwood School Saturday, according to Deputy Sheriff Gerald Fries. Fries said the boys peel-

Voters Pass Larkspur School Fund Measures

Larkspur School District voters, in a light turnout yesterday, approved a $412,000 bond issue and authorized borrowing another $498,000 from the state.

The vote: On the bond issue, yes, 1,038; no, 419; on the state loan proposal, yes, 1,017; no, 427.

The total vote cast was about 34 per cent of the district's 4,167 registered voters.

Approval of the bond issue brings the district to bonding capacity and qualifies it to apply for state aid toward construction of a fourth elementary school and additions to existing schools.

This construction, according to Supt. Vaughn D. Seidel, will take care of classroom needs for increasing enrollments over the next three years.

The district has been considered a 10-acre site in Mariners Cove for a fourth school.

JAZZ BAND, FILM STARS

Sister City's Asking A Lot Of Sausalito

Sausalito's sister city—Vina del Mar, Chile—has requested a jazz band, a basketball team, a few movie stars, some exhibits and a delegation from Sausalito to help celebrate its Chilean-North American week in October.

Mrs. Gladys H. Herman, chairman of the Sausalito Citizens Committee for the People-to-People Program, made this report at last night's meeting of the city council. She said the request, which was sent first to Washington, D.C., is being deliberated in Sausalito.

Mayor Philip S. Ehrlich Jr. said that to his knowledge, "We do not have a basketball team, a movie star nor a band but it is possible this kind of program might appeal to the State Department." The council decided a letter to this effect be drafted.

City Atty. John B. Ehlen suggested that Sausalito might send the Sea Point Parlor Native Sons Drum and Bugle Corps to Chile.

Councilman Marjorie Brady said she thought an air tour to South America might be arranged.

G. A. Vivado, head of the press section of the U.S. Information Service in Santiago, Chile, visiting Sausalito, was introduced and expressed his appreciation for the idea of exchange of persons to bring people of the two cities together.

Board Nixes Full-Time County Medical Chief

County Administrator Donald A. Jensen's idea of a full-time county medical director at $16,000 a year failed of approval by the Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday afternoon. Three board members sided with the present part-time director, Dr. Rafael G. Dufficy, to oppose the plan.

"I'm doing the job and I'm not complaining," said Dufficy. "A change would be foolhardy in this time of increasing taxes.

Jensen recited "increasingly complex medical and administrative problems," responsibility for supervising 55 employees and expending three-quarters of a million dollars for indigent medical care. "No other county in the state this size doesn't have a full-time man," he wrote.

Supervisor Vera Schultz said she felt there was need for an administrator, quite apart from who filled the job.

On a vote, only Mrs. Schultz voted "no" on continuing things as they were. Supervisor William D. Fusselman was absent.

A little later, the board sided with Administrator Jensen in rejecting Dufficy's request for three more nurses at the hospital. This time, Mrs. Schultz was alone in voting for the nurses.

Dufficy gracefully retreated to Jensen's position against a three-day per week clinical psychology, joining the administrator's recommendation for two days per week.

Various sections of the medical director's budget as finally approved worked out:

Medical department salaries, maintenance and capital outlay $128,766 total, compared with $116,111 last year. Hospital and medical care, $293,500 against $274,200. Tubercular care $24,700, up only $200. Hospital and farm salaries and maintenance $325,231 corrected, plus $700 capital outlay.

Dufficy called attention to a total reimbursement of $51,850 on hospital contract and public medical clinic.

Prompt, unanimous approval was accorded County Fire Chief Charles Reilley's budget to a corrected total of $317,446, compared with $307,450 for the current year.

An accompanying commentary pointed out that last year's fire season was "one of the most severe and potentially dangerous in recent years" but "incidence of grass, brush and forest fires went down from 193 in 1958 to 138 in 1959." Loss, Reilley said, was held to a minimum.

Reilley wanted $6,200 for vehicles, $2,750 for improvements to buildings and grounds, and $1,000 each for hose and hydrant replacements, to none of which anybody raised objection.

WALLS GO UP FOR MARKET BUILDING

Employees of William H. McDevitt Co., contractors, start erecting tilt-up wall slabs in place for new headquarters and warehouse of United Markets at Jacopi and Auburn streets, just outside San Rafael. The firm, which has two markets in Marin and others in San Francisco, will move its headquarters here from San Francisco when the new building is completed. (Independent-Journal photo)

McCarthy To Support Stinson Beach Route

State Sen. John F. McCarthy yesterday pledged his full support to efforts to "get action" on state Division of Highways plans for a new four-lane route from Highway 101 to Stinson Beach.

Meeting in San Rafael with Redwood Empire Assn. and Marin Coast Chamber of Commerce representatives, McCarthy was informed:

1. Army authorities have indicated they would welcome development of a new route which would provide additional access for coastal areas of Fts. Baker, Barry and Cronkhite.

2. Highway engineers have four general routes under consideration including the Panoramic highway which crosses the slopes of Mt. Tamalpais, the present State Route 1 (the Shoreline highway through Tamalpais Valley, a new route through Tennessee Valley and the route that would leave Highway 101 at the north end of the Golden Gate Bridge and lead to the ocean shore through the military reservations.

3. Present estimates are that construction would take place in three to 10 years.

4. The Division of Highways is expected to schedule a hearing at Stinson Beach soon to learn sentiment on routes under consideration.

5. The new route would provide necessary access for increased traffic which would result from creation of the proposed Pt. Reyes National Seashore Recreation Area.

Frank P. Myer of Point Reyes Station, president of the REA Shoreline Highway Assn., reviewed efforts to date to arouse the Division of Highways to action. He was critical of delays.

George P. Leonard and E. C. Hubbard of Stinson Beach and Tony and Waldo Giacomini of Point Reyes Station told the senator that Marin coast residents are unanimously in favor of the proposed new four-lane connection.

McCarthy said his first move would be to ask highway officials for a full report of the status of planning to date and to check on legislative authority granted to highway authorities to proceed.

Larkspur Council To Consider Sign

The Edgewater Inn's proposed 480-square-foot advertising sign will be in the spotlight again tonight.

The Larkspur City Council, meeting at 8 o'clock in the city hall, will hear an appeal from Fifer Industrial Park representatives and the Corte Madera Town Council and Planning Commission of the Larkspur Planning Commission's ruling giving the inn permission to erect the billboard on Larkspur.

The inn has leased property from the Northwestern Pacific Railroad on which to place the sign.

The council also will appoint a new council member to the Larkspur Recreation Commission and discuss the proposed Doherty drive extension to Redwood High School.

Also on the agenda are the proposed city corporation yard site, setting of public hearings for rezoning of the Garden Spot Nursery and Bon Air Hill addition, and the proposed Orange, Holly, Tamalpais Assessment District.

Lucille Ball Divorced From Desi

SANTA MONICA (AP) — Lucille Ball tearfully won an uncontested divorce today with testimony that her husband, Desi Arnaz, was a Jekyll and Hyde who made their marriage "a nightmare for the last three years."

The orange-haired star played comedy in the "I Love Lucy" series for nine years, but it was a tragic scene today in the Santa Monica Superior Court. From the moment she took the stand her usual jaunty air vanished and she began gulping to hold back the tears.

"My husband would frequently have fits of temper in front of everyone including the children," Miss Ball testified.

"It was a Jekyll and Hyde thing. . . ."

County Planners Hired As Novato Consultants

Marin County's planning staff was given a vote of confidence last night by the Novato Planning Commission, which asked the city council to hire the staff as planning consultants for the coming year.

City Clerk Robert O. Bailey said the commissioners had reviewed the offers of the county staff and two other professional planners for updating the city's zoning and subdivision ordinances and the North Marin master plan before selecting the offer of Mrs. Mary Summers, county planning director.

The planning commission also requested that B. D. Dobbs, principal planner for the county staff, be retained as Novato's liaison with the county body.

Cost of the county service, which would also include the necessary paper work for application for a federal advance planning grant if it is deemed necessary, would total approximately $6,656, Bailey said. Anticipating a total of $4,200 which would come to the city through planning fees, the net expense to the city was estimated at around $2,400.

Although the plans offered by the other two professional planners, Lawrence H. Livingston of Sausalito and Herman Ruth of Oakland, were not identical with the county plan, one of the estimates given was in the neighborhood of $30,000 for planning services.

In other matters dealing with planning and construction, the council set for May 17 at 8 p.m. as hearing of an appeal by Larry Witter and Associates for permission to alter plans of a shopping center to include a medical-dental building at South Novato boulevard and Rowland avenue.

The city planning commission last week approved Witter's request with a provision that access to the proposed building be through Rowland avenue after it is developed and that an easement be set aside for that purpose. Witter claims access can be gained through South Novato boulevard at less cost to him.

Contractor Henry Kaehler informed the council that he would not need an extension of time to relocate a storage shed near his duplex subdivision on Fourth street near Olive avenue. The planners approved the building for six months after completion of the duplexes. Kaehler had asked for an additional year.

May 17 was also set as a date for further hearings on a drainage ditch for the proposed Hillside subdivision on Tamalpais avenue south of Center road. Carlos E. Gonzalez, engineer, asked that subdivider Laurence Plowman not be required to install a covered drainage ditch along Tamalpais avenue.

The council suggested that Gonzalez approach the owners of the four lots facing Tamalpais avenue and attempt to set up an assessment district involving all the property, thereby reducing his costs.

Put over to an indefinite future date was a request by an un-named subdivider who proposes to build 18 units at the corner of Leese and Simmons lanes.

Consumer Counsel Sets Credit Meet

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — State Consumer Counsel Helen Nelson of Mill Valley, yesterday called a conference on "credit —its uses and abuses" for Monday and Tuesday in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Nelson said she and representatives from the attorney general's office, and the divisions of corporations, savings and loan, and banking would be on hand to hear consumer complaints and answer questions.

"We want to gather information and recommendations from buyers and sellers on installment buying, revolving accounts, teen-age credit, personal loans and door-to-door credit sales," she said.

The credit conference is one of a series to be held throughout the state.

WAYNE WOMACK
Mayor without dissent

Womack Wins Re-Election As Mayor

It was not necessary for Wayne Womack to vote for himself last night to be re-elected mayor of Novato.

Womack was nominated by Councilman M. E. (Babe) Silva, who described the city's first mayor as an "aggressive, conscientious councilman." He was then elected without dissent.

Silva in turn, and by the same 4-0 vote, was elected mayor pro-tem on nomination by his predesessor, Councilman Charles R. Johnson.

"I feel the man elected as mayor pro-tem should be one serving a four-year term," said Johnson, whose term will expire, along with Womack's, in two years.

Womack was elected mayor by the councilmen after the incorporation election of Jan. 12. Reorganization of the council after the April 12 municipal election, at which Silva, Everett Pozzi and Harvey J. Vicchio were re-elected, was postponed to last night to have all members present.

Terra Linda Board Backs Fluoridation

Directors of the Terra Linda Community Services District voted unanimously last night to support fluoridation of Marin Municipal Water District water supplies.

Mrs. Charlotte Gurin, secretary and general manager, said the resolution passed without any controversy five minutes after a written proposal was submitted by Mrs. Michael J. Franzblau. Mrs. Franzblau made a verbal request at last month's meeting to support fluoridation.

The board also voted to increase the bodily injury limits of the district's general liability insurance from $100,000 per person, $300,000 per accident to $250,000-$500,000.

The directors set for May 24 a candidates' night when six persons running for board posts in the June 7 election will give seven-minute speeches and answer questions from the floor. The meeting will be held at Hoffman School at 8 p.m.

Planner Resigns Sausalito Post

The Sausalito City Council accepted the resignation of Edgar H. Rowe from the planning commission at the council's meeting last night. Rowe, who had served two years, resigned because of "pressure of other matters."

Two persons were named by Mayor Philip S. Ehrlich Jr. to fill two of the four commission vacancies. They are Mrs. Howard M. Peek of 24 Cazneau avenue and Paul Micou, a lawyer of 564 Sausalito boulevard.

Sausalito Slates Zoning Law Study

A committee was set up last night by the Sausalito City Council with Councilman Marjorie Brady as chairman to "look into the existing Sausalito zoning ordinance and see what is wrong with it and plug up the holes."

The committee, in the words of Mayor Philip S. Ehrlich will be a "stopgap" and will "look into the major deficiences of the old ordinance."

The first meeting will be at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the city hall. Councilman Michael Harris will work with Mrs. Brady on the committee, along with two members of the planning commission and two citizens from the community.

The planning commission suspended hearings on a proposed new zoning ordinance because it lacked a full complement of members. The Sausalito Citizens Advisory Committee on zoning has been studying the proposed ordinance for some time, as has the Sausalito Citizens Council.

Mrs. Thomas Wiper and Mrs. Marian Frick, from the audience at last night's council meeting, said they would like to see people from different areas on the committee, not only from residential areas.

The city council also:

1. Adopted an ordinance requiring multi-dwelling structures to have one and one-half off-street parking spaces for each unit.
2. Approved warrants totaling $20,536.
3. Appointed Councilman Howard Sievers and Donald A. Duerr, former city manager, to form a committee to try to resolve easement, streets and sidewalks for Marinship.
4. Appointed Councilman Brady to represent the mayor at the Bay Area Pollution Control District meeting Monday at San Rafael.
5. Set up a committee to look into possibility of forming a parking district.
6. Denied a request by John R. Minton, 55 Cazneau avenue, for a permit to encroach on Cazneau with a fence.
7. Introduced an ordinance to repeal the existing ordinance allowing a turnaround space at Ondine's restaurant and instructed City Manager Charles A. Brown to set up a rental fee for the proposed of street parking space in place of the turnaround. The council also approved the encroachment by Ondine on submerged city land east of the restaurant for a boat float, with a fee schedule to be worked out by the city manager.

Pt. Reyes Seen As Recreation Area Addition

Pt. Reyes National Park has prospects of being included as "a fourth area" in congressional plans for recreation places coast to coast, the Marin County Board of Supervisors learned yesterday in a letter from Rep. Clement W. Miller (D-Corte Madera).

Miller wrote to thank the supervisors for their "wonderful job" of assisting the Senate sub-committee in its work of viewing the proposed Pt. Reyes federal playground and conducting what he termed a "very successful" hearing in which "all parties" had their say.

Cost estimates by the Department of Interior will soon be forthcoming for House hearings in Washington, he said. Senate hearings are also in prospect.

Washington's present thinking on such legislation is "quite mixed," Miller confessed, continuing:

"As you know, the administration has proposed three areas—Cape Cod, Padre Island and Oregon Dunes. I have been informed that if the hearings in San Rafael were regarded as fruitful and as pointing toward the feasibility of the park, Pt. Reyes might be included as a fourth area."

Another letter from Miller said that pursuant to a board resolution of Feb. 25, he had testified April 25 before the Senate Public Works Committee urging authorization of a regular Army Corps of Engineers flood control survey of streams feeding into Richardson Bay, including Coyote and Corte Madera del Presidio Creeks.

Lawyer Says Death Penalty Foes Face Loss Of Jobs

A college instructor and a union official, who staged a sitdown demonstration on the approach road to San Quentin Prison just before Caryl Chessman's execution, will probably lose their jobs, their attorney declared in Marin Municipal Court yesterday.

Franklin Stafford Harper, 30, English instructor at San Diego State College, and Fritjof Peder Thygeson, 30, of Berkeley, an organizer for the Retail Clerks Union, pleaded guilty to one of three charges. They admitted they remained after officers had warned them to disperse. Charges of unlawful assembly and resisting officers were dropped.

Judge Leonard A. Thomas sentenced them to time served in jail. They spent a day behind bars after being hauled in bodily by deputies.

San Francisco attorney George Brunn, representing the two, said they would probably lose their jobs.

Both Harper and Thygeson said they respect the laws of the state and police, but were merely protesting capital punishment by passive resistance.

"We believe in a higher law —Thou shalt not kill," said Thygeson.

The two men were freed yesterday.

Stabbed Inmate's Condition Good

A San Quentin Prison inmate was reported in good condition today at the prison hospital after he was stabbed with a sharpened table knife in the prison yard during the noon "stretch" yesterday.

Associate Warden Louis S. Nelson said the victim, Leonard Parres, 39, serving a term of up to life imprisonment for sex offenses in Orange County, ran up to Lt. B. G. Pool, correctional officer, about 12:50 p.m. He yelled at Pool to stop the man who was running in front of him. Parres then handed Pool a knife and said he had been stabbed in his left side with it by the man he was chasing.

The accused, Donald L. Blackmore, 19, serving six months to life for armed robbery in Riverside County, denied stabbing Parres.

Nelson said Blackmore was placed in a detention cell until further investigation.

Both men have been at San Quentin for about a month, Nelson said.

Novato Unable To Grab Bargain Deal

Novato's city council last night found itself in the position of not being able to afford a large, economy size bargain.

E. Donald King, representing the now-defunct Monte Maria Community Services District, presented the council with a proposition whereby the city could save $700 by purchasing and paying off the contract for landscaping of the Monte Maria subdivision.

The contract, signed by the services district board before the city's incorporation with D. W. Hendon of the Good Earth Landscaping Co. in Mill Valley, is for a total of $5,009.68. Although the residents of the subdivision agreed to tax themselves for the full amount, the city assumed the responsibility of collecting the taxes when it incorporated and the district was dissolved.

A balance payment for planting of $1,182 is due the landscaper on Aug. 1. Four quarterly payments, one for $650 and three of $794, are still forthcoming for maintenance. By paying the contract off in full and collecting the taxes from the residents, the city could save itself $700, or 23 per cent of the total bill, King said.

"Unfortunately, you are catching us at a time when we have no income in sight," said City Clerk Robert O. Bailey. "Our sales tax money won't come in until the end of August, and property tax income won't arrive until December. We are starting out with about 25 per cent of the money a new city normally has on hand."

As an alternative, Bailey proposed that the city take over maintenance of the center strips if the contractor would be willing to drop that part of his contract and accept only the $1,182 for installation.

The matter was continued until King can further negotiate with the landscaper.

Finances again held the spotlight when a $19.50 item for dinner guests at the recent Marin Council of Mayors dinner appeared among the claims.

Councilman Everett Pozzi objected to the expenditure on the basis that the new city could not afford such expenses.

Defending the payment of councilmen's dinner expenses to extra-curricular meetings was Councilman Harvey J. Vicchio. He maintained councilmen should have an expense account.

Mayor Wayne Womack emphasized that he had paid for his own dinner, and that the extra expense was for dinners of guests of the city.

The expenditure was approved among a total of $1,607 in April claims. No decision was reached on an expense account for city officials.

In other actions last night, the Novato council:

1. Proclaimed May 17-24 as Armed Forces Week and urged residents to take part in the open house scheduled at Hamilton Air Force Base on May 21.

2. Passed, on a second reading by title only, an ordinance setting Dec. 31 as the expiration date for terms of city planning commission members.

3. Acknowledged a letter from the California Highway Patrol promising increased policing of speeders on Novato boulevard.

4. Took under advisement for study at the next budget session a letter from Alonzo Zahniser of the Marin Golf and Country Club Estates Homeowners Assn. requesting additional street lights in the subdivision.

5. Agreed to send representatives without instructions from the council to the meeting on Bay Area governments at the Hotel Claremont in Berkeley tomorrow night.

6. Approved appointment of Deputy Sheriff Robert Digranzia as city police officer to replace Officer Ernest M. Nielsen, who is being transferred to the sheriff's headquarters in San Rafael.

7. Set for May 17 an adjourned meeting to discuss whether the city wishes to adopt city manager or city administrator government. The contract of City Clerk Robert O. Bailey has expired and he is working under a "gentlemen's agreement" until the city decides on his employment, the council was told.

8. Reaffirmed a meeting scheduled for 8 p.m. Monday with the Novato Sanitary District board to discuss possible joint operation of the sanitary district.

San Anselman Charged In Knifing In Larkspur

A 30-year-old San Anselmo man was charged with assault with a deadly weapon last night after he knifed another man in the apartment of a Larkspur woman, Larkspur Police Chief Howard Clark reported.

Booked in Marin County Jail was James Edward Watson of 79 Redwood road, San Anselmo.

Treated at Marin General Hospital for a knife wound on the right hand was Walter Wayne Hopson of 125 Willow avenue, Corte Madera. Five stitches were taken.

Clark said Hopson was calling on Katherine Smith of the Blue Rock apartments when Watson knocked on the door. He rushed in with a flashlight in his hand and ordered Hopson out. Then he grabbed a knife in the kitchen and lunged at Hopson, cutting his hand, the chief said.

Watson later was arrested at his apartment by San Anselmo and Larkspur police.

Clark said the motive for the attack was apparently, jealousy.

School Site Purchase Turned Down

Members of the Novato Unified School District board turned thumbs down last night on purchase of a four-acre site for future school construction.

The land would have cost the district $55,000. It is owned by the Pomoway Corp., which includes San Rafael attorney Phillip Kennedy, who represented the corporation before the school board.

The board decided to pass up purchase of the land because of its high cost, in belief that the Connell School site would provide sufficient school space for some years and that more population pressure may bring need of a school in west or northwest Novato.

Sewer Board Meet

The Alto Sanitary District board will meet at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the Alto firehouse. Because of lack of a quorum, the board was unable to hold its regular meeting Monday.

To Attend Meet

Twenty-five Sir Francis Drake High School physiology students from the classes of Norman Goldstein will attend a medical exposition at the University of California medical center in San Francisco Friday.

Early Warning Given. On 1960 Fire Season

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Californians got a new warning yesterday that the 1960 fire season "could spell disaster."

Grant Morse, assistant U. S. regional forester, told the California Fire Prevention Committee that there have been serious increases in the number of man-caused forest fires in the state.

There were 4,881 man-caused fires during the 1959 season, he said, compared with 4,017 during 1958 and the past five-year average of 3,312. A total of 381,792 acres burned in 1959 from all causes, including lightning, as compared with a past five-year average of 277,513 acres.

"The unusually late fire season of 1959 which lasted until Dec. 29 statewide and two successive years of below normal rainfall, if accompanied by even normal fire weather conditions, could spell disaster in 1960," Morse said.

Supervisors Approve Three More Budgets

The Marin County Board of Supervisors today tentatively approved the proposed budgets of the planning and health departments and the crippled children's services.

The planning budget would be increased from current fiscal expenditures of $95,512 to $111,134. The board was told that while planning services would not be offered on a county basis to Novato, which was incorporated, the same staff would be kept in force to accelerate master planning, particularly in the Bolinas and San Geronimo Valley areas.

At the same time it was decided that an official spokesman from Novato would have to meet with the board to determine fees Novato would have to pay for contracting planning staff services.

The health department budget was increased from a current figure of $242,423 to $272,868 and includes the salary of a sanitarian at $530 a month. The position was authorized last year. The rabies vaccination program, estimated to cost $6,900, the same as this year, also was improved. Five animals were proven to have been rabid in Marin last year. A physical therapist also was added, with all costs to be paid by the state. The department will receive $90,049 in fees and subventions from the state and federal governments.

The crippled children service budget is an increase from the current $114,000 to $135,000 with $101,000 of that coming from the state's share in the program.

Way Cleared For Water Pact Signing

Directors of the Northern Marin Water District last night gave final approval to signing of a contract which would bring Russian River water to Novato if a bond issue is passed June 7.

Directors authorized board president Arnold Heise to sign the contract Monday in Santa Rosa at a meeting of the Sonoma county Board of Supervisors.

The contract provides for payment of $1,830,000 as the North Marin share for construction of an aqueduct from Petaluma to Novato. The Sonoma County share for the aqueduct will be $2,600,000.

The contract will go into effect only if voters in the North Marin district approve a $3,790,000 bond issue on the ballot June 7.

The bond issue would include the $1,830,000 for the aqueduct, tank and necessary pumps, and for improvements in the North Marin Water District over a 10-year period, which would include replacement of lines, pumping station and tank construction.

Directors also agreed at last night's meeting to supply service to the 11 lots to be developed at Marin Golf and Country Club Estates unit four.

ing to Dr. Ralph Weseman, chairman of the board, to award the contract.

A loan of $250,000 was approved on April 25 by the Small Business Administration in Washington, D. C., toward construction of the facilities. According to Dr. Weseman, the loan will be handled through the First National Bank in San Rafael.

The hospital site, which consists of almost eight acres at the corner of Hill avenue and Canyon road, was purchased by the corporation, which is made up of doctors practicing in Novato.

other hand, people on relief rolls would not have to pay the $24 enrollment fee and the states could pay the initial $250 cost of medical care.

The program was the administration's answer to the old age health plan proposed by Rep. Aime J. Forand (D-R.I.). His plan would add hospital insurance to benefits already available under the social security program and raise social security withholding taxes to pay for it.

Democratic congressional leaders said the administration plan would require a lot of study, although at first glance they did not like it.

YOUTH

ed the back of a filing cabinet to steal more than $100 in cash.

The boys were cited to appear in Marin Juvenile Court for a hearing on burglary and delinquency charges.

Inspector Bowen Bridges and Deputy Fries followed a trail left by the boys Monday night when they began flashing money in a spending spree through town. First they exchanged coins for currency at a service station, then at Mike's Liquor Store. With the currency, they went to Jim's Sport Shop to buy a .22 caliber rifle, air pistol and pellets.

The 14-year-old told officers he gave a man on the street $5 to telephone the sport shop, giving the clerk authorization to sell the weapons to the youth.

Washington police also want to quiz the youth in connection with the murder of Sherry Marie Ergell, 9, of Centralia, Wash. She was kidnapped, raped, slashed in the throat, and left on a roadside last September.

The 14-year-old was taken to a Sonoma County court yesterday as a witness in another burglary there.

Mantegani's Charges Draw Reply

Secretary Kelly J. Wheeler of the Tiburon Fire Protection District today charged that his fellow commissioner, Fred Mantegani, erred in his criticism of the proposed Trestle Glen substation construction because "we were evicted from the garage in which the truck was stored on April 1, and if we do not find a place to store the truck permanently the insurance rates in the entire district will go up 35 to 40 cents."

The truck was previously kept in the Kirby Atterbury Garage, but the commission moved it when Atterbury raised the rent from $10 to $370 monthly.

"The truck is now kept temporarily in a Belveron Gardens carport, but will deteriorate if left there during the rainy season," Wheeler said.

"The substation, to be constructed at an approximate cost of $10,000, will be a shell of the future building . . . with the outside completed and the inside incomplete but able to provide protection for the truck."

Wheeler said the commission was "morally obligated" to hire the architectural firm of White, Herman and Steinau "because the former commission had accepted preliminary substation drawings from Steinau and then summarily dropped him without any payment or notification."

Mill Valley Police Relayed Report

Mill Valley Police Officer Edward Grigg informed the sheriff's office immediately after Dr. Wilson P. Goddard of Bolinas reported to Grigg that his car had rolled over on Alpine road Monday night and caught fire, he said today.

The California Highway Patrol, however, was not notified of the accident until much later.

Police Chief James Magowan of Mill Valley said today, "We report to the sheriff's office, and it is up to them to report to the highway patrol."

The Independent-Journal reported erroneously yesterday that the Mill Valley police had not relayed Dr. Goddard's report of the accident.

Consumer Aide To Support Pharmacy Ads

I-J Special Report

SAN FRANCISCO—The state consumer counsel said today, "I'll do something to support the right of a pharmacist to advertise."

Mrs. Helen E. Nelson of Mill Valley said in a press conference that she does not think she will be able to appear at a May 19 meeting of the state Board of Pharmacy in Fresno, but "I'll certainly make a statement" about a proposed rule to limit advertising by pharmacists.

The state board proposes a new rule governing such advertising, and will hold a hearing on it at that time.

The regulation proposed resulted from an series of advertisements published in the Independent-Journal by Drake Pharmacy in San Anselmo.

Mrs. Nelson said she has a conflict in her schedule which may make it impossible for her to attend the meeting, "but I'll do something about it."

Mrs. Clara G. Shirpser of Berkeley, member of the consumer counsel's advisory committee, also noted the consumer should have some specific representation in each public agency. The Board of Pharmacy is made up entirely of pharmacists.

DRUGS

ing of pharmaceuticals, according to McCarthy.

"I am bringing this matter to the immediate attention of Sen. Luther Gibson (Solano County), chairman of the Senate Business and Commerce Interim Committee; to Governor Brown, and to Mrs. Helen Nelson, director of the state Consumer Council," McCarthy said.

"These drug items in question are manufactured products that are simply counted out pill-by-pill and have no relationship to the professional qualifications of the pharmacist," he declared.

"It would be a disservice to the family needing medicines for a professional board to concern itself with maintaining the price of manufactured drug products.

"The state Pharmacy Board is one which could profit by the presence of an informed layman member to represent the public's concern with drug product prices."

He added, "the recent federal investigation of medicine costs bears out my contention that this is a matter well worth looking into."

Woman Trapped By Runaway Car

A San Rafael housewife spent a few terrifying minutes pinned against her garage door by her runaway car about 5:30 p.m. yesterday, but escaped serious injury.

Mrs. Marie P. Post, 67, of 358 Irwin street said she had parked her car and stepped out the door when the car began rolling back. The car door caught her right arm and pinned it against the garage wall.

Police Lt. Jay Fletcher said the car had to be pushed forward to release the victim.

Missing Girl Returns Home

Louise Marie Garrett, 15, of 417 Pine street, Tamalpais Valley, who was reported missing Monday night, has returned home safely, her father reported last night.

Sheriff's deputies canceled a search bulletin which had been issued for the girl.

WILLIAM C. BRADLEY JR.
Plans military career

Marin Youth Appointed To West Point

William C. Bradley Jr., 18, former student leader and athlete at San Rafael High School, will enter the U. S. Military Academy at West Point, N. Y., in July.

His appointment to the academy was announced today at Ft. Belvoir, Va., where young Bradley has been attending a military preparatory school since last September.

Inspector William C. Bradley of the Marin sheriff's office and his wife, Estell, parents of the youth, received the news by telephone at their home at 1 Hazel Court, San Rafael. Their daughter, Barbara, 17, is a senior at San Rafael High School.

Young Bradley became an Eagle Scout last April.

At San Rafael high, young Bradley was first string varsity tackle on the football team in his junior year. He was president of the freshman class, student representative to the student council in his sophomore and junior years.

He became president of the junior class, president of the student body, and headed the inter-high school Government Affairs Committee representing all high schools in Marin.

In 1958, young Bradley attended Redlands University for three weeks as a Junior Statesman and was elected chief justice of his class. After school hours, the youth worked part-time at Scotty's Market in Terra Linda.

He seeks a military career with science research as his specialty.

School Building, Scholarship Bills Signed By Brown

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Bills beefing up state programs for college scholarships and local school construction were signed into law today by Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

The scholarship bills will eventually double the number of awards offered high school students for general study and quadruple the number for agriculture study.

The construction measures authorize a 300-million-dollar bond issue for construction loans to local school districts and a 20-million-dollar emergency appropriation for current loans.

Corte Madera Building Permit Value Drops

Fifteen permits for construction valued at a total of $174,425 were issued in Corte Madera last month by building inspector William G. McBride.

The total is $37,141 more than the previous month, but $346,443 less than the same month last year when there was a spurt of applications after adoption of a new town zoning ordinance.

Hub To Seek Engineering Study Bids

The City of San Anselmo will seek an engineering survey of costs of the immediate development of "Phase 1" of the downtown portion of the city's master plan.

City councilmen and planning commissioners agreed on this step last night. City Administrator Douglas Flautt was asked to work out with the planning commission a list of items to be included in a call for engineering study bids.

LIST REQUESTED

The council asked Flautt to have the list ready for its meeting next Tuesday night for quick action. Flautt, however, expressed doubt today he could get the job done in time.

The report would cover development of the area between a widened Sir Francis Drake boulevard and Corte Madera Creek at the rear of San Anselmo avenue store buildings. Mozart Kaufman, proprietor of Kaufman's Department Store, already has announced plans to build across the creek. The master plan envisions a service road, walkway and parking lot between the creek and the highway.

Also to be included are off-street parking developments and a new street to parallel Cedar avenue and give a new circulation pattern to the Hub City's downtown traffic. Costs of land acquisition and construction of the new street, most expensive portion of the project, are to be included.

FINANCING UNDECIDED

Whether the developments will be financed by an assessment district with city participation or by other means has not as yet been decided.

Conversion of the downtown portion of San Anselmo avenue into a pedestrian mall, also included in the master plan, is not part of "phase one" which the council and planners agreed unanimously to push for an early start.

All members of the planning commission and all councilmen except Mrs. Carmel H. Booth were present for last night's discussion at the city hall.

hoe has been picked up several times for motor vehicle violations and juvenile mischief but has no felony record. The 16-year-old has a clean past record except for an investigation in connection with shoplifting in 1958.

Chief Cordes said that in their flight the pair threw the money box, a red shirt and a handkerchief from the car. He said the box has not been recovered.

He didn't know which one pocketed the quarter.

Finder Turns In String Of Pearls

A valuable string of pearls, worth several hundred dollars, is waiting for its owner at the San Rafael police station.

Chief Charles J. Chiesa said the pearls were found by a woman, who wants to be anonymous, near a market in the 1700 block of Fourth street.

The person who lost the pearls may claims it by identifying the item at the police station.

Final Rites Set For Car Victim

A Requiem High Mass for Chris H. Smith, who was killed Monday by a car on Highway 101 near San Rafael, will be celebrated Friday at 9:30 a.m. at St. Raphael's Church in San Rafael.

Smith, who had been a cook at the San Rafael Military Academy six weeks before his death, had been a chef for 15 years and lived in California for 54 years. He was a veteran of World War I.

He is survived by three brothers, John J. Smith of Oakland; George M. Smith of Yountville, Napa County, and Constant W. Smith of Los Gatos, Santa Clara County.

The funeral cortege will leave Harry Williams Mortuary, San Rafael, at 9 a.m. The Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the mortuary.

Woman Collapses, Dies In Her Home

Irene Margaret Duggan, 58, of 23 Bradcliff court, San Rafael, collapsed and died at her home last night, apparently of a heart attack.

An autopsy was to be performed at Harry M. Williams Mortuary in San Rafael today. Funeral arrangements will be made at Arthur J. Sullivan in San Francisco.

Her husband, Leo Ignatius Duggan, told police his wife began coughing about 10:30 p.m. then collapsed. San Rafael firemen and a doctor tried resuscitation without success.

They were sentenced for attempting to block an income tax evasion prosecution of Irving Sacks, a St. Louis shoe manufacterer. They had waged a four-court battle to avoid imprisonment.

SUPERVISORS ROUNDUP

Policy On Overtime, Time Off Approved

A draft of county policies on paid overtime and compensatory time off, prepared by County Administrator Donald A. Jensen, was approved with modifications by the Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday.

Arisng out of a recent dispute about welfare department overtime, the draft, in resolution form, set down as policy that no department head shall permit any employee to accumulate more than 40 hours of overtime without specific approval of the board.

An exception was made in the case of the county fire department so that unlimited overtime could be accumulated during the fire season, to be taken off in compensating time during the rainy months.

It was laid down that each department should maintain complete attendance records, with the department head responsible for keeping entries up to date. Basically, it was made clear, "overtime work is to be discouraged."

Under "interpretation" were detailed provisions, as that an employee returning to his work after a night meeting in the county may claim mileage if no overtime is paid or compensating time off given, "except that private mileage will not be paid to or from employee's home from a point beyond the county line."

The supervisors also:

1. Accepted a progress report, with no definite proposal, from County Administrator Jensen on plans of a citizen committee for a state fair exhibit to "consist primarily of volunteers actually performing a function along cultural and recreational or artistic lines," such as weaving, rigging a boat or painting, performing music or making ceramics.
2. Hired John De Borba as attendant at Miller Park.
3. Approved annexation of civic center property to the Las Gallinas Valley Sanitary District.
4. Certified status of right of way in connection with transfer of three parcels of land for relocation of the San Geronimo-Nicasio road in the vicinity of Marin Municipal Water District's new Nicasio dam.
5. Answered questions during a call by the first of three groups of senior students in "Problems of American Democracy" at Tamalpais High School, headed by Cyril Beattie as teacher.
6. Approved a request of the Bolinas Property Owners Assn. for an assessor's list of Bolinas property owners.
7. Approved a proposal to reclassify Del Mesa, south and east of the Ross firehouse, into a new district with slightly more restricted residential status.
8. Received a letter from the County Supervisors Assn. commending Marin Sen. John F. McCarthy for the part he played in passage of automobile anti-smog legislation at the recent Legislature.
9. Approved polling places and election officials for the June 7 primary, after hearing from the county clerk that he is still short of election officials.
10. Authorized the North Marin Water District's $3,790,000 bond issue to appear on the June ballot.
11. Granted a carnival fee exemption for the West Marin Junior Livestock Show, providing it does not have a professional carnival operating.
12. Reappointed William L. Cirby to another four-year term as Alto-Richardson Bay Fire District commissioner.
13. Authorized transfer of a surplus 1941 pickup truck from the county civil defense organization to the Fairfax Fire Department.

Signups Set For Kindergarteners

Registration of children who will enter San Rafael kindergartens next September will be conducted May 11 and 12 at all San Rafael elementary schools.

Hours for registration will be from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., Supt. Frank L. Lucas announced today. Legal documents verifying birth date should be presented. Children born on or before Dec. 2, 1955, are eligible to register.

Registrations will be accepted throughout the remainder of the school year, but Lucas urged that parents register the children next week if possible.

Sausalito's Building Permit Value Drops

There were 23 building permits issued in Sausalito during April, totaling $213,576, as compared with 13 permits totaling $286,169, last April, according to building inspector William L. Hynes.

New construction for 14 units this year totaled $183,556 and alterations and repairs, with nine permits, totaled $30,020.

SALES CHIEF—Breck Tyson has been appointed regional sales manager for the 13 western states for Bastian-Morley Co. and its subsidiary, H. C. Little Burner Co. He will headquarter in San Rafael.

Notary Commissioned

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan today announced issuance of a notary public commission to Mildred Martin, 1210 Fifth avenue, San Rafael.

Dispute Over Apartment Building Goes To D.A.

With a quiet in marked contrast with its many past noisy wrangles with George Molander of Francisco Sales Co., the Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday referred to the district attorney a report of apparent defiance of its orders.

Public Works Director Marvin W. Brigham advised by letter that orders to remove an unauthorized deck from an apartment building at 405 Maple street, Tamalpais Valley, have been ignored, along with orders to reduce a fence to six-foot height.

Nontheless, Brigham added, the remaining apartments in the building have been occupied without approval of the building inspector.

The board had ruled that the apartments, valued by the owners at $100 a month rental each and long vacant during the wrangle, should not be approved for occupancy until orders about deck and fence had been carried out.

Brigham said no electric meters were installed in the apartments but service was provided "by connection to house meter in manner violating the electric code" while "gas connections presumably were made under the building in similar manner."

Squaw Valley Land Acquisition Slated

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Gov. Edmund G. Brown yesterday signed a bill opening the way for state condemnation of additional land at Squaw Valley.

The measure, by Assemblyman Jesse M. Unruh (D-Los Angeles), allows the state to condemn private land it wishes to acquire for park purposes at the site of the 1960 Winter Olympics. Legislative approval of specific condemnations is not required.

U.S. To Lend $19,400 To Dixie District

The federal government will lend Dixie School District $19,400 of interest-free money for planning one new school and an addition to another.

Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel (R-Calif.) wired the Independent-Journal yesterday of approval by the Housing and Home Finance Agency of the advance to the Dixie district.

The money will be used, said Dixie Supt. Dennie B. Willis, for plans for a new 20-room kindergarten-sixth grade school on a site adjoining Vallecitos seventh-eighth grade school (and across the street from Terra Linda High School), and for a multi-use room addition to Mary E. Silveira School in Marinwood. The site for the 20-room school was purchased two years ago from the Freitas estate.

VEHICLE CHIEF DISAGREES

Solon Says It's Too Easy To Get Driver's License

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Is it too easy to get a driver's license?

A California legislator thinks it is.

"I've always felt it was too easy to get," said Assemblyman Lee M. Backstrand (R-Riverside) yesterday at a regional conference of the American Assn. of Motor Vehicle Administrators.

Robert I. McCarthy, state motor vehicles director, disagreed. He said the driver's test is just about as effective as we can make it."

"Let's remember that driver examiners are not psychiatrists, and oughtn't to be," he said.

Backstrand replied that maybe they should be.

Lt. Robert Koch, licensing chief for Washington state, recommended raising the passing grade on drivers' tests from 70 to 85.

"You'll get a higher quality of drivers on the road right now," he told a panel on licensing.

Bernard R. Caldwell, former commissioner of the California Highway Patrol now directing the Northwestern University Traffic Institute, called for more thorough physical exams.

Caldwell and McCarthy agreed that drivers' tests don't reveal enough about "driver attitude."

Both called for closer follow-up checks after drivers are licensed.

All agreed that something should be done to assure better drivers on the highways.

To Issue License

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The Contractors' State License Board announced it plans to issue a wood flooring contractor's license to W. F. Cooney, hardwood floors, 109 Hawthorne way, San Rafael, if no protest is received by May 18.

Councilman Given Approval For Building Addition

Dr. Charles W. Aby won permission to build a second floor addition to his medical office building at 30 H street in San Rafael, at a special meeting of the San Rafael Planning Commission Monday evening.

The upper floor will be used as an architect's office. Dr. Aby, who is also a city councilman, plans to acquire nearby property for parking space.

The planning commissioners also granted a two-lot subdivision for A. B. Costigan at 46 Mooring road, and a four-foot roof overhang into the side yard. Costigan will put in a roof storm drain and build a fence to shield his house from the neighboring property.

Richard Clayton and Edward Jacobson of San Rafael won architectural approval for a restaurant and warehouse at the northwest corner of Mill and Harbor streets.

Kefauver Claims Data On Drug Tests Withheld

COMBINED AP & UPI

WASHINGTON—Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.) today accused a big drug manufacturer of withholding vital information from the nation's physicians in the clinical testing of a new drug for diabetes.

Kefauver told John E. McKeen, president of Charles Pfizer and Co., Brooklyn, N. Y., that his firm "didn't come clean" in advertising it sent to physicians on the medicine, called "Diabinese."

The senator said the company did not tell the doctors that tests on almost 2,000 patients before the drug was marketed showed adverse side effects in 27 per cent of the cases.

McKeen angrily protested that the figures were misleading because they resulted from high dosages which were later reduced substantially.

Meanwhile a doctor contended that the Senate drug hearings will cause irreparable harm to some diabetes patients and that Kefauver is to blame.

Kefauver, chairman of the Senate Antitrust and Monopoly subcommittee said he would comment during the hearing in the letter sent him by Dr. James M. Moss, director of the Georgetown University diabetic clinic.

Moss criticized what he called headline hunting in the inquiry, contending it is frightening patients away from their doctors and causing them to stop using all medication. They may become invalids as a result, he added.

JUDGE ORDERS VERDICT

Lung Cancer Victim Loses Suit Against Tobacco Firm

PITTSBURGH (UPI)—A directed verdict of acquittal was granted today in a month-long trial of a lung cancer victim's $1,250,000 damage suit against Liggett and Myers Tobacco Co.

Federal Judge John L. Miller told the jury that the court was of the opinion "that no substantial evidence has been offered to support a verdict against the defendant on any theory of negligence."

"The motion by the defendant is granted and the jury is directed to file a verdict in favor of the defendant," Judge Miller instructed the jurors.

Counsel for Liggett and Myers rested their case yesterday. Otto Pritchard, 61, a Pittsburgh cabinet maker, claimed he developed lung cancer from smoking Chesterfield cigarettes for almost 30 years. A portion of his right lung was removed by surgery in 1956.

Liggett and Myers' final witness, Dr. L. Henry Garland, stated flatly he did not believe cigarette smoking caused Pritchard's cancer. Asked the concensus of medical men on the relationship of smoking and lung cancer, the San Francisco X-ray specialist said:

"A large body believes that smoking is the cause; a large body believes a virus is the cause, and a large body admits it doesn't know. I belong to the last group."

The jury consisted of seven women and five men.

THE UNUSUAL HAPPENS— COUNTY FUNDS RETURNED

The Marin County Board of Supervisors doesn't often get back money appropriated for some public project. But yesterday it did.

The San Rafael Junior Chamber of Commerce wrote the board that it is sorry but it will not be able to sponsor the "Miss Marin County" pageant this year. In a letter signed by president Don Leaf, the chamber said it has undertaken five other projects and "can't work on everything."

Enclosed was a check for $500, which the supervisors had appropriated to help finance the pageant.

Improvement Work Set For Wherry Housing

The Department of Defense in Washington has released $1,250,000 for refurbishing of 504 family housing units used by personnel at Hamilton Air Force Base.

The units, the Wherry housing area in Raphael Village, were built in 1950 at a cost of $4,500,000.

Rehabilitating the units will include adding an extra bedroom to some one-bedroom houses, adding a utility storage room to some, improvement of the present wall gas heating units, enlargement of kitchens, and painting and repairing where needed, a base spokesman said. No date has been set for advertising for bids from private contractors.

The amount made available for the work is less than the $1,524,200 working estimate made in February, 1959, Rep. Clement W. Miller (D-Corte Madera) noted in a letter to the Independent-Journal.

The funds are to be allocated for work on about 50 units a month.

The units house both enlisted men and officers. They were operated by private landlords until a services directive put them under Air Force control.

Terra Linda Recreation Vote Slated

Residents of Terra Linda will vote next November on formation of a recreation district.

The county board of supervisors, acting on opinions of the county counsel's office, yesterday set the election for the district's formation on the same day as the general election, Nov. 8.

Asst. County Counsel E. Warren McGuire told the board the election "must be held the same day as the state general election" since with the formation of such a district must be an election of a governing body and the Public Resources Code does not provide it can be held at some other time.

McGuire did say the supervisors didn't have to call the election immediately, but the board decided to call it now so that the people would know about it well in advance and candidates could plan campaigns.

Candidates have, under the law, until 20 days before the election to file for election. Nominating petitions must carry the signatures of at least 10 qualified electors of the district, boundaries of which already have been designated by by the supervisors.

Albert Urges Board 'Hold Line' On Tax

Marin County supervisors should "hold the line" on the tax rate this year, a major county property owner urged yesterday in a letter to the board.

Harry Albert of San Rafael, told the board that while considering the budget he wanted to go on record "as registering emphatically that serious consideration be given to 'hold the line' on the tax rate and perhaps a reduction in the rate."

With the county's growth, he said, it is fair to assume taxes at the present rate "would be more than ample" for expanding county needs.

The board, he wrote "cannot continue to ignore the significance of the tax structure for county needs and for all other public requirements such as schools, sanitary districts, etc. The county cannot overlook that other public agencies are part and parcel of the tax rate."

The property owner, and particularly the commercial property owner, finds it difficult to assure a reasonable return on investment "because taxes are out of line," he declared.

The board filed the letter.

Two San Rafael High School seniors won trophies at the California state championship high school speech tournament in Santa Barbara Saturday.

Lenore Brawley, 17, of House 70, San Quentin, won first place for dramatic interpretation. Cheryl Lynn, 17, of 237 Humboldt street, San Rafael, won second place in original oratory.

Both girls had qualified for the tournament at a contest held at Holy Names College in Oakland March 5.

They were accompanied to Santa Barbara by Mr. and Mrs. Louis J. Leonardi of San Rafael. Mrs. Leonardi is an English teacher and speech coach at the high school.

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

Chessman Is Gone But Death Penalty Still With Us

The gas chamber has closed the case of Caryl Chessman. The problem of the death penalty is still with us.

It is fortunate, it seems to us, that the legislature is not in Sacramento at the moment, nor will the legislators be called into special session because most of them are too busy campaigning. It is fortunate because the problem of the death penalty deserves consideration completely aside from the years of hysteria which have marked the Chessman era.

Needed now is sober, comprehensive consideration of what we in California want from our laws. At present our law is based on an ultimate penalty of death in the gas chamber. Other crimes are scaled down from that possibility.

Merely eliminating the ultimate penalty doesn't make the law more equitable. In fact it makes it less equitable because persons accused of lesser, but major crimes would then face the same punishment as those who commit what are now capital crimes.

Elimination of the death penalty doesn't take away inequities caused by wealth or position, often complained about by opponents of execution. The wealthy can still pay for the best lawyers.

Californians should decide, and it should be decided by Californians, not New Yorkers or Britishers or movie stars or Uruguayan students, how best they can enforce their laws. If there is no death penalty, what is to be the ultimate punishment for, say, a man who repeatedly kills others? That's a decision we must face ourselves.

We are not agreed at present on this. Many favor execution. Others prefer a life sentence without possibility of parole. Still others say, "He's sick, poor fellow, let's send him to a hospital for treatment and we'll release him as soon as he's well again."

Californians have the obligation of making their laws as effective and fair as is humanly possible. Chessman's 12 years on death row are proof positive that something is wrong somewhere, justice certainly never intended such a thing to happen.

Our problem then, is to either make our present system work in its job of enforcing our laws, or of changing the system to another one which will work more effectively. Merely eliminating the death penalty will not do this.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

By JAMES KELLER

BOY'S DREAM COMES TRUE

Time and tide wait for no man, but sometimes they help little boys.

When an 8-year-old youngster grew restless, while fishing on Long Island last summer, his father said:

"Why don't you write a letter, put it in a bottle and send it off. I'll bet you get an answer."

Three and a half months later he did get an answer. It came from a lady in England.

"Think of the miracle of the tides bringing your message all the way across the Atlantic and up to London," she wrote. "I couldn't help but write and tell you the fate of your note."

Parents, teachers and in fact everyone can have a beneficial influence on the impressionable minds of young persons if they help them develop a vision that is big and all embracing.

Rather than bottle up their talents and energies, strive to open up new horizons that will challenge their God-given yearning to know, to love and to serve.

"Lift up your eyes and behold that the fields are already white for the harvest."
(John 4:35)

Imbue young people, O Lord, with a love for all people of all nations.

Say These Once Too Often And Bus Will Pass You Right By

NEW YORK (AP) — Remarks that bus drivers get tired of hearing:

"I'm sorry, the smallest I've got is a $10 bill."

"If you simply used your authority, you could make them move to the rear of the bus."

"I'm afraid you'll have to pull to the curb and send for help. My child has her hand caught in the fare box."

"Well, you don't have to be such a grouch about it. All I asked you is whether I should take the No. 4 bus, the No. 8 bus, the No. 10 bus — or give up and go by cab."

"I been waiting here for half an hour. Where you been — to Mars?"

"Don't you ever get tired of driving the same old route day after day after day?"

"Tell me, have you run across any interesting pedestrians lately?"

"I admit he looks big for his age, but he won't be 5 years old until November. That algebra book he's carrying belongs to his older brother."

"I know I shouldn't talk to you while the bus is in motion, but my husband doesn't listen to me anymore, and I simply have to talk to somebody, and—"

"Does this bus go by the department store that is having a sale on bedsheets this week? I forget the name of the store."

"Don't argue with him, Grace. Just take his badge number."

"Well, somebody put the chewing gum on the seat. And somebody is going to have to pay for having my dress cleaned."

"WHAT DO YOU get your biggest thrill out of — splashing old ladies, or just pulling off and leaving them standing in the rain?"

"Do you accept credit cards?"

"When I was a kid I wanted to be a bus driver, too."

"Do you find travel very broadening?"

"Why didn't that cop put any money in the box? Is he a privileged character?"

"YOU MISSED that last bump. Why don't you go back and try again."

"Well, am I glad I'm not married to you!"

"Tell me one thing. Don't you guys ever get up on the right side of the bed in the morning?"

"Hey, driver, wake up! The light turned green!"

REMEMBER WHEN?

10 YEARS AGO

Marin County supervisors approved the expenditure of another $136,000 in state and federal funds on the Novato-Pt. Reyes highway. This comprises the final phase covering Novato boulevard nine miles west from Novato. Two years ago the county authorized outlay of $222,000 from similar sources for the western 10 miles of the route.

20 YEARS AGO

Parallel parking on both sides of San Rafael's Fourth street from E street to Tamalpais avenue was felt by the San Rafael City Council to be a good idea for six months' trial in view of heavy traffic. Several years earlier a similar plan failed because Fourth street merchants were 98 per cent opposed.

Teachers Insulted By Superintendent

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

The report of the San Rafael Board of Education, as was reported in your paper (April 27), regarding teachers' salaries, really got my dander up.

Supt. Frank Lucas urged the teachers to "sit down as professional people, and face problems honestly — Consider what we are paid for."

The implication in the above quotation is that teachers are not honest. What an insult!

Yet, further in the article it states that the board plans to hold a special executive session to discuss administrative salaries that may affect the budget. It's improper to hold a special executive session for the above purpose. Also, I can well imagine in which direction the budget will be affected — upwards for the administrators.

Please understand me. I don't begrudge adequate salaries, but the board ought to quit pussy-footing with respect to administrative salaries and be HONEST with THEMSELVES and us "POOR TAXPAYERS."

The most practical thing for the San Rafael Board of Education (or any board for that matter) is to put all administrators on a schedule as other governmental agencies do. First and foremost, this would take administrators salaries and negotiation. Secondly administrators would know, in advance, in which direction they would be going professionally and financially with peace of mind. Thirdly, the district would profit immeasurably by holding and keeping good administrators who could afford to become permanent members of the community.

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

May I respectfully call your attention to a very fine article which appeared in your newspaper on Wednesday, April 13 This was a dissertation on the thoughts and expériences of a Member of the Legislature who now enters retirement after 20 years service.

I do not accent this simply because it was written about me, but because it is a most outstanding piece of journalism. Chip Day sat in my office for two hours of informal conversation and it is perfectly amazing that a reporter could subsequently produce such a well written article, either from memory or a few notes. Everything in his writing is correct, no misquotes, quite educational and very interesting.

Those of my friends to whom I have shown this article have all encouraged me to write you this letter suggesting that if there is some kind of professional award, Pulitzer Prize or something, within your journalistic fraternity, Mr. Day's subject article should certainly be submitted for consideration.

I would be pleased if this letter complimenting your newspaper were reproduced in your letters to the editor column.

Why Condemn All Pharmacists?

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Helen Ewing Nelson's (Consumer Counsel) request for a copy of a drug advertisement regarding prescription prices, should be forwarded to her by all means.

If the Consumer's Counsel is interested in lowering prescription and drug prices, I suggest she start at the top and join hands with Senator Kefauver's investigation of basic pharmaceutical manufacturers and their habits; i.e. difference in pricing for foreign and domestic outlets.

These basic facts should be recognized. Retail pharmacists in Marin County price their prescriptions, in my opinion, in a fair and equitable manner, taking into consideration the expense of charging, delivering, pharmacists wages and other overhead expenses. As a matter of fact. Pharmacy is classed as a profession, calling for five and six year university course, therefore, pharmacists should be entitled to a wage scale at least paralleling the plumber, electrician, etc.

Another fact for consideration; all professions, in this state, including optometry, dentistry, medicine, chiropractic, etc., prohibit the advertising of price for services or materials furnished. Why isolate pharmacy in this legislation?

If we are to keep pharmacy and other healing affiliates out of socialization, it is my suggestion that the Consumer's Counsel and other fact finding interests with public welfare in mind, correct the unfair and downright unmerciful double tax on medications furnished to cancer victims and diabetic supplies which constitute a must to untold thousands in this state alone. The diabetic must pay a sales tax on his life sustaining insulin, and the persons suffering from malignancies not only pay an internal revenue tax on algesics, which help to ease their sufferings, but in addition, pay a sales tax on the afore mentioned medicants.

No, it is not the pharmacists in Marin, or any other community who are the culprits in medication costs. It starts with the drug monopolies, their methods of advertising by giving enormous quantities of samples to the medical profession — promoting trade name products rather than the generic name (true name) of the material.

If one of the pharmacists in Marin wishes to work longer hours, pay smaller wages, and make a smaller net profit, that is his business. Why condemn pharmacy for this kind of operator??

Parent Grateful To Our Teachers

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Thank You, Thank You, Thank You.

Thank you to the principal and teachers of our children's schools.

Last night (April 25) I attended Public Schools week observance at West End School. We have two children starting their school life in the kindergarten and first grades. I have no doubt that they are among the luckiest children in the world today. They are surrounded by opportunities never offered before to youngsters of their age. Their teachers are better trained, their material is more interesting, their school is more pleasant than ever before in the history of public schools.

Some people think that our teachers have an easy nine to three job. They ought to drop around at their school about 4:30 some day and see who is busy planning how to make the three R's fun and still "keep up with the Russians." Also those displays of our children's work and exhibits of classroom projects took time or evenings and Saturday's free time — no overtime on this job.

I know that I speak for many parents and of many principals and teachers, we are very grateful for the job you are doing. Thank you.

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

In Novato You Can Read Books Which Are Banned Down Peninsula

I am happy to report that, among other virtues, Novato can boast of being free of and unfettered by book burners.

To those high school students in city of San Jose down the peninsula, I can say that five books recently removed from their school bookshelves are available in two spots in Novato.

The five books, removed as unfit by members of that weird band of busybodies who apparently seek their emotional charge by combing literature for questionable words, are "The Sun Also Rises," by Ernest Hemingway, "Look Homeward Angel," by Thomas Wolfe, "The Human Comedy," by William Saroyan, "Brave New World," by Aldous Huxley, and "The Catcher in the Rye," by J. D. Salinger.

ALL ARE AVAILABLE, I am pleased to say, in the Novato branch of the Marin County Library with the exception of "Brave New World." Although not in stock at the moment, it will be ordered for anyone wishing to read it, I am told by the librarian. While waiting for it to arrive, I might suggest Huxley's "Ape and Essence," which is in stock at the moment.

In addition to Saroyan's "Human Comedy," the Novato library also has on the shelves "My Name Is Aram," "The Daring Young Man on the Flying Trapeze," "Rock Wagram" and "The Adeventures of Wesley Jackson," all by the same author.

THE OTHER SPOT where the books are either in stock or on order is a new lending library which recently opened in offices adjoining the Strout Realty Office on the North end of town at 7464 Redwood Highway.

Lorraine Jackson, proprietor of the library which has been open only a short while, now has in stock "Brave New World," "Look Homeward Angel" and "Catcher in the Rye." On order are the Hemingway and Saroyan works.

In the event all the books are out at the time any hopeful reader might call, I will be more than happy to lend my own copy of any of the disputed volumes to anyone not equipped with a pair of scissors and a perverted mind.

FROM THE SUBJECT of book burning to bird watching, I am also pleased to report that Reginald, the baby cockateel my son, Dave, is mothering these days, is doing nicely, thank you.

Although not the most handsome creature on two feet, he (or she?) is sprouting what resemble feathers, a topknot and a raucous voice audible for blocks at feeding time — which seems to be every few minutes.

By keeping Reggie in a box which is inside a bird cage and behind a locked door, we have somehow managed to thwart our ravenous cat, Clover, who has hopefully eyed the morsle with a hungry look ever since he arrived at our house.

We hope to keep the two apart — but if worse comes to worse, you can't say we don't feed our cat well.

State Department Right In Acting To Eliminate Korean Headache

WASHINGTON — If there is any criticism to be made of the State Department in its dealings with South Korea, it is that it might well have acted sooner.

For years Korea has been an American headache. Dr. Rhee has played the despot and has carried on a regime which made a mean joke of the bloody struggle we waged to save South Korea for democracy and liberty. In his relations with Japan and with his powerful neighbors in East Asia he has been an irresponsible nuisance.

After the brazen theft of the elections in March his dictatorship, which we had just managed to tolerate, became intolerable.

AFTER THE VIOLENCE and dishonesty of the elections, rebellion broke out all over South Korea. His government had lost the final excuse by which dictatorships can be justified — that they are able to govern. When Dr. Rhee resigned, he had ceased to be able to govern.

In all probability the United States could not have saved Dr. Rhee had it wanted to do that. There was no reason why we should have wanted to save him. In taking its stand against Dr. Rhee and for a new deal, the State Department acknowledged the inescapable responsiblity of the United States. It is that we are involved in Korea and are responsible for the maintenance of a stable and a reasonably liberal regime.

IT WAS AN HONEST and a healthy thing to intervene openly. The open intervention is a public acknowledgement of the real situation, which is that the South Korean state was created by American arms, is protected by American power, and is maintained by American subsidies.

All the world knows this, and therefore all the world holds the United States accountable for the behavior of the South Korean government. There is no way in which we could protect and support South Korea and at the same time act as if it were an independent country like, for example, Switzerland or Denmark.

The critics of the State Department's intervention cannot have it both ways. They must not ask us to underwrite South Korea and at the same time demand that we leave it entirely alone.

It would suit most of us in America much better if we could leave Korea alone, if we did not have to intervene, if we did not have to take a part in overthrowing a government, if we did not have to worry about its successor.

But the only alternative to doing these disagreeable things is to withdraw from South Korea, and to stand aside, and to let it be sucked into the orbit of Red China.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

Frank Shuster of the comedy team, Wayne and Shuster, tells of a young Cuban intellectual who was suddenly appointed head executioner in a certain district by Fidel Castro. He had butterflies in his stomach the first time he led a prisoner forth to be shot, but asked the doomed man formally enough, "Would you like a cigarette?" "No," was the answer. Then he asked, "Would you like to be blindfolded?" Again the prisoner spat out "no."

The officer barked, "Ready," and "Aim" but just then the prisoner cried out a defiant "Down with the tyrant and scoundrel Castro!" The officer ran over and shook him. "You fool," he admonished. "Are you just trying to cause more trouble for yourself?"

Mays Sets Sights On 200-Hit Mark

Off to a rocketing start, Willie Mays figures that if he can get 100 hits by All-Star time in mid-July he'll finish with a good season.

"You never know," says Willie. "You can't say how many hits you'll get. But I figure that if I can get the 100 by All-Star time, I could finish the season with 200 and that would be a real good year."

With safe hits in all of the San Francisco Giants' 16 games to date, the great centerfielder tops the National League batters with a .452 average. Of his 28 hits, seven were doubles and one a home run.

He has only one big regret in the batting department—the combination of a spacious outfield and unaccommodating wind in the club's new Candlestick Park home.

"I like to hit the long ball every now and then," he observed seriously, "and that's mighty tough here."

Willie spoke of right-handed hitters, since the wind blows in from left field and aids the left-handers.

Mays, 28, not only leads the league in batting but also in stolen bases, with six. His seven doubles give him a tie for the leadership in that department. He's also drawn nine bases on balls, and gives opposing pitchers fits when on the base paths.

This marks Willie's best start since the Giants came to San Francisco. In 1958 through the first 16 games he was hitting .406 and wound up at .347 with 208 hits, the only time he's gone over the 200 mark. Only Richie Ashburn, with .350, posted a higher average.

Last year, hampered in spring training by illness and a ripped shin, Mays was only .292 after 16 contests and finished with .313.

In the home run department, Willie had his best years while the Giants were playing in New York's Polo Grounds. He hit 41 in 1954 when his .345 average led the league, and in 1955 he poled 51. Playing home games at Seals Stadium, he had 29 homers in 1958 and 34 last year.

But at Candlestick, where the left field fence bellies out quickly to 397 feet and the wind provides an invisible barrier, Willie has yet to hit for the circuit.

DODGER ACE SIDELINED—Pitcher Roger Craig of the Los Angeles Dodgers points to his fractured collar bone as he poses in team's first aid room with Manager Walter Alston. Dodger-Cincy War Erupts After Injury To Craig

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The way things were going at Los Angeles, it looks like Vada Pinson blew town just in time.

It was Pinson, Cincinnati's fleet, 170-pound center fielder, who sent Roger Craig tumbling in a home plate collision Monday night. Craig, the 190-pound right-hander who meant a National League pennant for the Dodgers last season, left the game with what then was thought to be only a bruised right shoulder.

But after an examination yesterday uncovered a broken collarbone that will sideline Craig for two months, it didn't take Pinson long to get the idea he was a marked man. Dodger pitchers kept him dancing and dodging and reliever Stan Williams finally plunked him, as the Reds took a 5-3 decision last night and then left for San Francisco.

The Philadelphia Phillies defeated the Chicago Cubs 10-9 in the other game played in the N.L. The only other game scheduled, Milwaukee at San Francisco, was rained out.

In the American League, Washington ended Cleveland's winning streak at five with a 7-6 decision that dropped the Indians out of a first-place tie with Chicago. The White Sox defeated Baltimore 5-3 for a half-game edge over the New York Yankees, who handed Detroit a seventh straight defeat, 10-3. Boston beat Kansas City 4-3 in 10 innings.

The Dodgers finally nicked Pinson on the right hand in the seventh inning. He then stole second, went to third on a fly ball and scored the Reds' final run when Williams sent a wild pitch over Frank Robinson's head.

WILLIAMS WARNED

Plate umpire Tony Venzon called a halt at that point and shook a finger at Williams, a right hander with something less than pin-point control. Players from both clubs crowded around the plate, but Venzon later said his rebuke was not an official warning, which would carry an automatic $50 fine.

The Reds, winning two in a row for the first time, swept the series at Los Angeles with three runs in the sixth. Two scored on Robinson's fifth homer and the clincher came in on a double by Dutch Dotterer, who had homered for the first run in the third inning. Don Demeter hit a pair of solo home runs for the Dodgers.

Right-hander Jay Hook (2-2) gave up 10 hits and walked three, but struck out nine and came off a winner with Bill Henry's relief in the ninth.

Ed Roebuck (1-1) lost it in relief of Danny McDevitt, who retired in the fourth and joined the Dodgers' injured list with a sore arm.

The Phils came from behind with six runs in the fifth and then scored the winner in the ninth on Ken Walters' home run, his first. Frank Thomas hit two home runs for the Cubs, who built a 5-0 lead in two innings against Gene Conley, the basketball-playing righthander making his first 1960 appearance for the Phils. Jack Meyer (1-1) was the winner in relief. Glen Hobbie (2-2) lost it.

PREP BASEBALL WASHED OUT; MADE UP TODAY

Wet grounds yesterday forced postponement of all action in the Marin County Athletic League baseball schedule, but sunny weather this morning permitted the game to be played this afternoon.

Today's schedule was San Rafael at Novato, Marin Catholic at Tamalpais and Redwood at Drake.

The league continues Friday with three more games on tap: San Rafael vs. Drake at 4 o'clock and Redwood vs. Tam, 6 o'clock at Albert Field, San Rafael; and Novato at Marin Catholic.

Johnson Solid Choice In TV Battle Tonight

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Harold Johnson, the No. 1 light heavyweight contender, rules a heavy favorite to defeat unheralded Clarence "Tiger" Floyd tonight in a nationally-televised (ABC) scheduled 10-round fight from Convention Hall.

It Will be Johnson's first bout since Nov. 12 when he scored a technical knockout over Sonny Ray in Chicago. The 31-year-old Philadelphia native has a 62-8 record and has won his last 11 fights.

Johnson, frustrated in his attempts to get another shot at light heavyweight champion Archie Moore, plans to try to get a title match in the heavyweight division against the winner of the Ingemar Johansson-Floyd Patterson fight in June.

Floyd, an unorthodox boxer, has 10 victories in 17 fights. The New Yorker gained prestige by scoring an upset decision over previously unbeaten and fourth-ranked Von Clay here March 18.

Beau Purple Out Of Derby Classic

The ailment is minor and occurs with most young horses. It was estimated Beau Purple would be out of training two or three weeks.

LOYAL TO GIANTS — Mrs. Roberta Morrison of San Francisco, who admits to being older than 21, is the San Francisco Giants' most rabid female fan. She is shown as she went all out rooting for her club during Monday night's game with Milwaukee. On her Giants' rooter cap are pictures of Willie Mays and Olando Cepeda. CHICAGO FRANCHISE

Mystery Surrounds Expansion of AFL

NEW YORK (AP)—The fledgling American Football League became a 10-team circuit today with the addition of Atlanta and Chicago, but there remained one mystery to be solved:

Who gets the Chicago franchise?

Harry Wismer, president of the New York Titans and chairman of the AFL expansion committee, announced yesterday that Atlanta and Chicago have been awarded franchises.

Eaton Chalkley, Carrollton, Ga., automobile dealer and husband of movie actress Susan Hayward, snapped up the Atlanta franchise.

"We'll play in Atlanta when we've got a place to play," he said, "meaning that I'm hopeful this will encourage the city to get on with its new stadium project."

Wismer said two groups were trying to get the Chicago franchise. One, he said, was headed by Tom King Jr., and Johnny Rigney, formerly of the Chicago White Sox and now a securities dealer. The other, he identified as being headed by Bill Veeck, currently president of the White Sox.

But:

King said his group had not asked for or received a franchise. He said the league asked for a $25,000 down payment for the franchise, but he did not pay it.

"I believe there is a great future for the American Football League in Chicago," said King, "but we have not asked for a franchise yet."

Rigney said he had been asked several weeks ago if he was interested and he replied that he was not.

Veeck couldn't be reached for comment. But it was reported that his role, if any, would be that of landlord if the franchise operates in Comiskey Park, home of the White Sox.

Wismer said the Atlanta team definitely would be ready to play in 1961.

However, there is a complication in the Atlanta setup. The team would like to use Georgia Tech's Grant Field as an interim site until the Atlanta City Stadium is built. But the field is owned by the state and there is a Georgia law that Negro and white athletes cannot compete together on state property.

Wismer said if the law is repealed, the Atlanta team would be ready to operate next year. If it isn't, the start would be in 1962.

Teams already in the AFL, which is set to start operations this fall, are Buffalo, Los Angeles, Dallas, Houston, New York, Denver, Boston and Oakland.

Scanlon Wins New York Boxing Title

• BUFFALO, N.Y.—Irish Bobby Scanlon, a transplanted Buffalo scrapper now fighting out of Nicasio in Marin County, Calif. was in line for some big paydays today after winning the New York State lightweight championship last night.

He scored his first victory under new management by pounding out an impressive 12-round decision over previously unbeaten Jackie Donnelly of Buffalo.

The clever Scanlon, co-managed by Marin County restaurateurs Nick Kobseff and Lou Sabella, and trained by former world middleweight champion Fred Apostoli, swarmed over his opponent in the fourth round, landing several stiff blows to the head. As the bell rang Scanlon landed a strong left to Donnelly's head and the Buffalo fighter fell backward to the canvas. His seconds rushed into the ring and dragged him to the corner.

Referee Ruby Goldstein, however, took the round away from Scanlon, ruling that Bobby had hit Donnelly after the bell.

MORE TROUBLE

Donnelly, who held a two-round advantage at 135, was in trouble again in the fifth as Scanlon pursued his advantage.

Action slowed after that, however, as Scanlon elected to stay at long range and outboxed Donnelly.

Goldstein voted seven rounds for Scanlon, gave four to Donnelly and called one round even. Judges Lou Goldstein and Artie Aidala both scored it 8-3-1 for Scanlon.

It was Donnelly's first loss in 22 bouts and Scanlon's 35th victory in 40 bouts.

The fight was witnessed by an estimated 6,500 fans, largest Buffalo boxing crowd in several years.

The victory was a big step in Scanlon's comeback under new management. Buffalo matchmaker Jack Barrett said he would attempt to match the winner of last night's fight with either ranked lightweight Paolo Rosi of New York or world junior welterweight king Carlos Ortiz.

Cal Tackle Sally Signs With Dallas

DALLAS, Tex. (UPI)—End Tom Whitaker of the University of Nevada and tackle Frank Sally of the University of California have signed contracts with the Dallas Cowboys, according to the new entry in the National Football League.

Whitaker, a native of Ukiah, Calif., is a senior electrical engineering student at Nevada, where he was a four-year letterman. He was the top pass receiver in the nation among small colleges in 1957 and was selected three times to the Far West Conference All-Star team.

Sally was voted the most valuable player and most valuable lineman of the 1959 Golden Bear team.

Collins Tells How He Beat Golf's Top Winner Palmer

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Big Bill Collins has a deep affection for the 237-yard par 3 No. 7 hole at Memorial Park Golf course—he figures it won him the $35,000 Houston Classic tournament.

He had to beat the man setting the season's money-winning pace—Masters champion Arnold Palmer—in a playoff to do it.

They were going through their 18-hole playoff for the $5,300 first money yesterday and Collins was two strokes behind. It was the first time during the tournament that the big blond from Crystal River, Fla., by way of Baltimore, had been in arrears. He had been tied several times, then tied for first place with Palmer at the end of 72 holes, each with a 280 total.

At No. 7 Palmer's tee shot was in a sand trap but Collins, using his 2-iron, drove within four feet of the pin. Palmer blasted out but past the hole and took a bogey while Collins ran down his putt for a birdie. It tied the match and Collins went on to a 3-under-par 69 that beat Palmer, who shot a 71, by two strokes.

"That was the turning point as far as I was concerned," said Collins.

It was the first tournament victory of the year for Collins, who now has gathered in $14,276.89 and risen from seventeenth in money-winnings to fourth place.

Palmer still is the top-money-earner by a long shot. Counting the second money of $3,400 here, he has taken down $47,657.57 and that's the largest amount a golfer ever won in a comparable period. Second-place Dow Finsterwald has won only $22,730.

The Houston tournament drew its largest crowds in history and the 30,000 that turned out Sunday at the 7,122-yard Memorial Park course was the all-time record for golf in Texas. The playoff pulled in 2,000 fans and Collins and Palmer split half the gate receipts.

Mrs. John McGraw Expects To Attend '60 Series—At Candlestick

HANLEY

Mrs. John McGraw bade goodbye the other day to Horace Stoneham and Eddie Brannick of the Giants but promised: "I'll be back later in the year."

What the widow of the immortal manager of the Giants of another era meant was that she expected to return to Candlestick in October for the World Series.

"Sure they are still 'my Giants' and it doesn't make any difference that they're Californians now, said Blanche McGraw. "John would have felt right at home here, too.

"It's heartwarming to see the tremendous feeling and spirit that San Franciscans have for the team. In fact, I think they should have made that ball park larger to accommodate all of them.

"It was worth coming 3,000 miles for the opening of Candlestick Park just to hear the announcer ask over the loud speaker:

" 'Will Mr. So-and-So tend his boat. It's getting away from its moorings . . .'

"BOATS AND BASEBALL? It could only happen in California. My husband would never have believed it. Why, I could hardly believe my eyes when I watched 12 boatloads of fans arriving and anchoring outside Candlestick. It was a marvelous sight!"

Mrs. McGraw declared "the neighbors back home in New York, I'm sure, won't believe me when I tell them about the boats.

A gracious lady, baseball's No. 1 Lady, Blanche McGraw said Candlestick's fans are every bit as rabid as the old Polo Grounds gang.

"I'D HAVE TO say yes. They are as wild as New Yorkers in their heyday. Of course, they can't take Coogan's Bluff or the Polo Grounds out of me or any other loyal New York Giant rooter. We all miss the Giants in New York. Nothing will ever take their place.

"But then," she reminisced nostalgically, "I've been with the team longer than most people.

John McGraw has been dead 26 years now but baseball never will forget him.

"I TALKED WITH Vice President Richard Nixon at the Cardinal-Giant opener April 12 and was surprised how much he knew about my husband," she said.

" 'Who doesn't know him?' Mr. Nixon told me. 'What a fighter he was! His name will live forever!'

"Mr. Nixon was such a McGraw fan that I guess he made a Nixon fan out of me. I told him: 'If you get in the White House, I'm coming to see you!' He laughed and replied: 'Just rap on the door'."

BLANCHE McGRAW shakes her head regretfully when asked if there is anyone in baseball today like the Little Napoleon.

"It's too bad, too," she said. "It wouldn't hurt to have more fight and aggressiveness in the game. Casey Stengel comes closest. But my husband was unique. He was way ahead of the game, too. More than 30 years ago he used to say to me:

" 'Blanche, someday players will be flying all over the country to play baseball.'

"HE DIDN'T LIKE night baseball. 'This is a day game,' he insisted. And above all he hated the nickname of 'Mugsy.'

"I don't know where he got it. I never got courage to inquire. If you called him that, prepare to duck!"

364 Yachts Start Newport-Ensenada Race Tomorrow

NEWPORT BEACH, Calif. (UPI)—The 13th annual Newport-to-Ensenada, Mexico, yacht race gets off at noon tomorrow with a bulging field of 364 vessels.

The record time for completing the 130-nautical mile course is 14 hours, 1 minute, 7 seconds, set by the catamaran Aikane in 1957.

The 40-foot Carousel skippered by Ash Brown of San Diego was among the entries. Brown won the race last year in the Carousel and clinched his first victory in 1948.

The only other two-time winners entered were Barney Huber's Mara of Balboa, Calif., Yacht Club and Hale Field's Scripps' 89-foot ketch, Novia Del Mar.

Tam Linksmen Top Marin Catholic

The Tamalpais golf team defeated the Marin Catholic wildcats yesterday afternoon 4-2, over the wet, windswept Mill Valley golf course.

Low medalist for Tam in the nine hole play was Mike Cooke with a 36, while Marin Catholic's low medalist was John Mullen with 32.

Hearings On L.A. Stadium Set Tomorrow

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The city planning commission tomorrow will hear three appeals protesting a Dodger tract map for developing controversial Chavez Ravine for a baseball stadium site.

Two appeals were filed Monday with the city planning department and an earlier appeal already was on file.

Approval of the map would clear almost all possible hurdles in getting the Dodgers into a proposed 52,000-seat stadium and baseball plant, officials said.

City planning director John E. Roberts approved the tract map for 315 acres on April 20. Should the commission uphold Roberts' decision, the maps can be directed to the city council for approval.

Barney Ross Settles Suit On Film Ads

CHICAGO (UPI)—Former fight champion Barney Ross has settled his five million dollar suit over movie advertising allegedly portraying him as a dope addict for a reported $10,000.

Ross' suit against United Artists and Essaness Theater Corp. charged that the Woods Theater, an Essaness theater in Chicago, used the words "Hero yesterday, dope addict today," in advertising "Monkey on My Back," the movie about Ross' life as a Marine.

The movie showed that Ross recovered from narcotic addiction, but Ross charged that the advertising indicated he still was an addict.

Ross' attorney, Irving Zemans, said the ex-boxer settled out of court because he felt trial publicity would damage his new career as a New York public relations man.

Sportsmen Want Protection For Wildlife In State Water Program

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — State Fish and Game Director Walter T. Shannon apparently doesn't share the concern of some wildlife and boating groups over Gov. Edmund G. Brown's proposed $1,750,000,000 water bond issue.

The money will be used to construct a gigantic spiderweb of canals and reservoirs to carry water from Northern California to the thirsty southern part of the state.

But is contains no absolute provision for protection of fish and wildlife features.

This led the California Wildlife Federation to withhold support of the governor's program until such time as a positive assurance is forthcoming.

Right now the assurance that fishlife will not be forgotten is on an informal basis. It might be described as a sort of gentlemen's agreement.

Shannon, speaking in Porterville, said the pressures of California's growing human population make the protection, maintenance and enhancement of fish and wildlife a constantly more complex task.

"The Department of Fish and Game is dedicated to such protection and enhancement and we are not giving up, but water diversions, dams, water pollution, a shrinking outdoors and the desires of ever greater numbers of people to hunt, fish or otherwise enjoy and utilize wildlife all pose a grave threat," he said.

Turning directly to the water bond act, Shannon pointed out that Brown at the urging of sportsmen had issued a "strong statement" early this month to the public and press.

In that statement the governor had this to say:

"It has been and will continue to be the policy of my administration to maintain, protect and enhance fish and wildlife resources for the benefit of all the people after passage of the California Water Bond Act. The funds made available under that act legally can be utilized for such purposes and for recreation.

"Laws which will guarantee a suitable pattern for maintenance, protection and enhancement of wildlife under the bond act should be passed at the 1961 session of the Legislature. I will urge the Legislature to establish such a pattern and will work toward that end myself."

Nixon's Prestige Gets Boost In Big Indiana Vote

Vice President Outpolls Kennedy; Humphrey Wallops Morse In D. C.

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

After a day crammed with primaries, Vice President Richard M. Nixon sported the most decisive triumph today—victory over Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) in Indiana.

But, as votes seeped in from yesterday's balloting, other presidential candidates counted victories, too.

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota won his first Democratic primary in the light-voting District of Columbia. As expected, Kennedy won all Ohio's delegates to the Democratic National Convention. Nixon apparently took all the Republican delegates in that state.

In two nonpresidential primaries, the results focused on issues as well as personalities.

States Rights candidates led Loyalist candidates in Alabama's primary for Democratic presidential electors. In Florida, a States Rights man and a racial moderate won the right to enter the Democratic runoff for governor.

In Indiana, Nixon piled up a huge Republican popular vote, outpolling Kennedy's Democratic vote by a good margin. The state is tradiitonally Republican, but Kennedy had campaigned hard and had predicted he would outpoll Nixon.

The two candidates were on separate ballots. Each had what political observers earlier described as minor opposition. But that opposition took heavy chunks from Kennedy's vote.

With returns from 3,665 of the state's 4,261 precincts, Nixon had 359,503 votes and Kennedy had 286,988 votes.

This gave Nixon's Indiana's 32 votes on the first ballot at the Republican National Convention and Kennedy its 34 votes on the first ballot at the Democratic convention.

Republican National Chairman Thruston B. Morton called Nixon's vote a "tremendous upset victory."

In the District of Columbia, Humphrey had a decisive edge over Sen. Wayne Morse of Oregon in the Democratic presidential preference vote.

With 100 of 142 Democratic ballot boxes recorded, Humphrey had 4,065 votes and Morse had 2,828 votes.

But a Democrat unlisted on the ballot, Adlai E. Stevenson, also showed he had support in the nation's capital. A slate of convention delegates pledged to him held second place behind the Humphrey slate.

The Republicans had no presidential preference ballot. All their delegate candidates were pledged to Nixon.

In Ohio, the results of an internal Democratic party battle still were in doubt. But, whatever the outcome, Ohio's 64 votes at the Democratic National Convention will go to Kennedy.

The Republicans also had an internal battle. Former Sen. George H. Bender was running for a delegate spot, pledged to himself. All other candidates were pledged to Nixon.

But Bender appeared to be soundly beaten and dethroned as a power in state politics. Nixon apparently will have the state's 56 votes at the Republican convention.

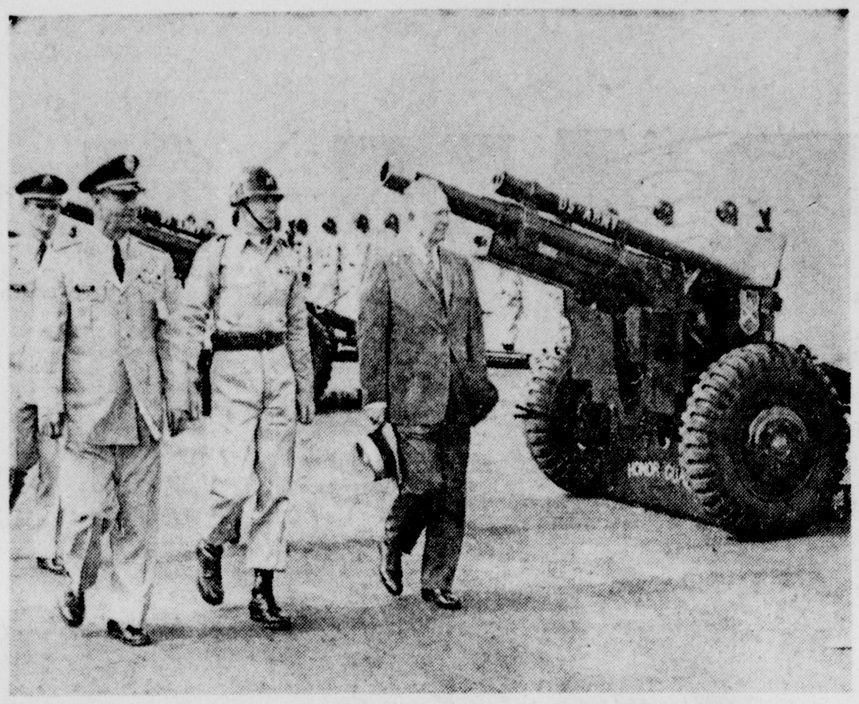
On the Democratic side, Gov. Michael V. DiSalle's slate of convention delegates was challenged at several points by some dissident Democrats. With half the returns in, DiSalle's group was running well.

In Florida, Farris Bryant and Doyle E. Carlton Jr. won the right to meet in the May 24 Democratic runoff. The victor in that primary will face a Republican candidate in the November election.

Bryant is considered a States Right advocate and Carlton is known as a moderate on the racial question.

In Alabama, the early returns had all States Rights candidates ahead of Loyalist candidates in the Democratic selection of presidential electors.

The States Righters said they would not vote for the Democratic candidate if his policies were hostile to the South's traditions. The Loyalists pledged to support the party and its nominee.



WELCOME FOR IKE — President Eisenhower troops the honor guard at Ft. Benning, Ga., as he was greeted there yesterday upon his arrival to witness a demonstration of atomic weapons. At left is Gen. Eisenhower Hits Back At Critics Who Claim U.S. Has Become Soft

WASHINGTON (AP) — They are mistaken—or worse—President Eisenhower says about critics who contend America had become "soft" and couldn't defend itself in a nuclear war.

The President hit at the critics in an informal talk yesterday at Ft. Benning, Ga. He spoke out after witnessing a spectacular demonstration of atomic weapons to back up the foot soldiers. They included the new Davey Crockett short range gun designed for quick use at any trouble spot.

Eisenhower, who spent seven hours at the big infantry training center and then flew back to Washington last night, also saw many of the latest weapons fired—with conventional rather than nuclear warheads—under simulated battle conditions.

Rockets zoomed from hovering helicopters, tanks guns zeroed in on targets with deadly accuracy, and Honest John and Little John missiles thundered from mobile launching pads.

In advance of the firepower demonstration, the Army had paraded before Eisenhower an imposing array of other weapons with nuclear capability—the Nike Ajax, Nike Hercules, Hawk, Corporal, LaCrosse, and the new Pershing and Sergeant.

Then the President went to a microphone at the edge of the firing range and told the Ft. Benning personnel:

"A day like this makes a man quite ready to call all those people mistaken, or worse, who say that America has become soft and is not capable of defending itself. I am so proud of you that I really have no words in which to express it."

Eisenhower was on hand for the first public display of the Davey Crockett nuclear gun, still very much hush-hush so far as its details are concerned.

The Crockett gun can be handled by two men. The Army says troops using it, will not endanger nearby friendly forces and civilian populations.

Space Balloon Try Scheduled For Tomorrow

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla (AP)—Silent, but shining bright as a star, a huge balloon communications satellite may wheel across thes kies tomorrow.

The hollow, 100-foot sphere, called Echo, could pave the way for a satellite system to provide faster, more reliable and cheaper communications around the world.

A three-stage Thor-Delta rocket is scheduled to blast off at an undisclosed time with the space ball folded in its nose.

If all goes right, the ball will be ejected about 1,000 miles up and automatically inflated.

The balloon will spin about the earth for a month or so as a target for radio signals and voice messages from widely scattered ground stations.

Forum Speaker

Dr. Walter Gieber, professor of journalism at the University of California, will be guest counselor this evening at a College of Marin forum on "Problems Resulting from the Population Explosion." The meeting, in room 91, Olney Hall, at 7:30, will discuss "The Impact of Television." Henry K. Norton will preside.

BANKER LABELS TYPICAL U.S., CITY 'A MESS'

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The typical American city is "a mess," a prominent Maryland mortgage banker said here yesterday.

James W. Rouse, head of James W. Rouse Co. and president of Baltimore's Community Research and Development Co. condemned downtown sections as:

"Dirty, crowded, outmoded, inefficient and ugly."

He addressed a convention of the International Council of Shopping Centers at the Mark Hopkins Hotel here.

Solutions, he declared, can be found in improved zoning laws, planning commissions, slum clearance and urban renewal projects and highway development.

Rouse also told the 400 delegates that today's shopping centers are "too impersonal and lacking in warmth and spirit."

San Rafael Man Talks To Crime Institute

Cletus J. Fitzharris of San Rafael, vice chairman of the California Adult Authority, is appearing twice this week on the program of the National Institute on Crime and Delinquency, in Kansas City, Mo.

Fitzharris is summarizing workshop sections dealing with adult parole boards.

NATO Warns Russ Against Provocations

ISTANBUL, Turkey (UPI)—NATO alliance welcomed the East-West summit talks but bluntly warned the Soviet Union today to stop provoking West Germany and other NATO members if it wants to live in peace with the West.

The final communique of the NATO foreign ministers meeting reaffirmed the NATO members' determination to protect West Berlin and upheld the Western plan for step-by-step disarmament under effective controls.

The ministers welcomed the call by President Eisenhower for long term planning to meet the challenges of the 1960's.

The Nato ministers ended their pre-summit meeting in an Istanbul still under martial law but quiet after several days of student demonstrations against the Turkish government. The demonstrators did not protest NATO.

The communique made it clear there could be no "peaceful coexistence" while the Soviet propaganda machine was hammering at West Germany and other NATO countries.

Payole Probe Closes With Parting Blast

WASHINGTON (AP) — House investigators have closed the books on their marathon payola inquiry with a new blast at broadcasting stations and a promise to do something about them.

The parting shot was a congressional report that payola has been a lavish practice affecting the TV-radio industry in all parts of the nation.

CLARK RAPPED

The report was coupled with a new barrage at Dick Clark, the disc jockey king, and complaints that television is riddled with trash, inept programming and too much commercializing.

President Leonard H. Goldenson of the American Broadcasting Co. conceded the industry has its problems. But he said things are improving, and that next fall will bring more quality programs than ever before Goldenson was one of the final witnesses as the House Legislative Oversight Subcommittee concluded hearings late yesterday in the payola inquiry that began last November.

ACTION PREDICTED

Chairman Oren Harris (D-Ark.) predicted action within the next few days on remedial legislation.

The subcommittee's parent House Commerce Committee, of which Harris also is chairman, now has before it bills to outlaw deception in broadcasting, impose stringent curbs on payola, and license TV-radio networks. Only individual stations are now licensed.

Before adjourning the hearings, Harris introduced a report that 130 record distributors across the nation doled out $264,244 in payola in 1958-59.

QUESTIONNAIRES

This information was compiled by subcommittee investigators from questionnaires sent to 230 distributors in 23 cities.

The subcommittee also put in its record an analytical study of the recordings played on Clark's afternoon TV show, "American Bandstand."

The study said Clark "pushed songs in which he had an interest."

Clark testified he selected records for his show strictly on merit.

STUDENT ANTICS

U.S. Sub Bombarded With Firecrackers By Aussies

SYDNEY, Australia (AP)—University students bombarded the U. S. atomic submarine Halibut with firecrackers last night and held two American sailors in a dog house for ransom.

The Halibut is here with the U. S. cruiser Canberra for the annual anniversary observance of the Battle of the Coral Sea. Two years ago students boarded the U. S. carrier Bennington, here on the same mission, and brought the crew to action stations by setting off the general alarm.

Last night the youths rigged a catapult of bicycle tubes overlooking the Halibut's berth and started to bombard the sub at long range with five-cent firecrackers.

All the shots fell short, nobody was hurt, and the students fled with local police in pursuit.

Then a telegram arrived at the Canberra demanding one shilling (11 cents) from each of the 85 officers and 1,350 enlisted men aboard to ransom two kidnaped American sailors, Dick Jamieson of Michigan and Rex Leard from Texas.

University students are collecting money today to help finance the Australian Olympic team's trip to Rome.

Two good-looking girls had "accidentally" met Jamieson and Leard in the city and invited them to look over the university. On the campus male students pounced on the sailors, locked them in an outsize dog kennel in the veterinarian school and called in newspaper photographers.

After sending the telegram to the cruiser, the kidnapers took their captives off to a party.

Leard and Jamieson were back on the Canberra before their leave passes expired at 11 p.m. The cruiser's duty officer refused to say if the ransom had been paid. He would not give the home towns of the two sailors.

Trail Riders Slate Showing Of Slides

Joanne Stewart, president of the Tamalpais Trail Riders, will present a slide show of a horseback trip through the Sierra at a meeting of the Southern Marin Horsemen's Assn. at 8 p.m. Friday in Old Mill School, Mill Valley.

Plans for "play day on horseback," to be presented in connection with the Mill Valley Optimist Club's youth-o-rama May 21 and 22 at Project 17 in Mill Valley, will be discussed, according to Nancy D. Lowenthal, secretary.

Pure sugar cane... so sweet and clean little Hawaiians eat it raw

(Grown-ups make it into C and H)

You are looking at two of the sweetest products of Hawaii: sugar cane... and little sugar cane eaters.

Here on the Islands, sugar cane grows so pure, sweet and clean, little Hawaiians eat it raw. While we grown-ups make it into sugar...for you. C and H Sugar. World's finest, we believe.

For nature has given Hawaii everything sugar cane needs to grow its sweetest. Our sun shines brightly. Our rains fall gently. And in this earth, even orchids grow wild. This must be where sugar was meant to grow.

So many of our friends on the mainland use C and H Sugar...we hope you are one of them.

IF THE LOOK reflected on the faces of Mrs. John Davis, left, and her daughter, Ellen, are any indication, that curried egg casserole of Mrs. Frederick Q. Tredway's will be mighty good. This is a recipe from the notebook on parties and party menus put out by St. Stephen's Guild of Belvedere, which will be on sale at the 10th annual house tour, "Sophisticated Suburbia" from 1 to 5 p.m. on May 12. (Stephen Allen photo)

Curried Eggs A Speciality Of Mrs. F. Q. Tredway, Belvedere

Curried eggs are the piece de resistance when neighbors and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Q. Tredway gather in the serene Garden Room of the couple's home on the Belvedere Lagoon for Sunday breakfast.

Sampling the chafing dish specialty at a preview demonstration were Mrs. John Davis and her nine year old daughter, Ellen. Mrs. Davis is a member of the committee which will make available the St. Stephen's Guild recipe collection "Parties and Party menus" as a feature attraction during the tenth annual tour of Belvedere homes. The Guild's "Sophisticated Suburbia" house tour is scheduled for Thursday afternoon, May 12, from 1 to 5 p.m.

Mrs. Tredway's gourmet dish is ideal company fare, for it can be prepared well ahead of time, then heated at the buffet table. It eliminates the last minute flurry of such breakfast favorites as scrambled eggs which keep the hostess chained to the stove.

Mrs. Tredway, a charter member of St. Stephen's Guild as well as a chairman of the church's Altar Guild for a number of years, has willingly shared the rest of her tempting Sunday menu.

Halves of grapefruit, served either broiled or chilled depending on the Sunday morning weather in their patio—curried eggs, Tennessee smoked ham, sliced very thin and served cold, hot buttermilk biscuits served with home-made blackberry jelly (made from the wild blackberries gathered at Inverness last summer) complete the enticing bill of fare.

Anticipating the hospitality of this gracious hostess are a group of friends from San Francisco who will be Mrs. Tredway's guests at luncheon preceding the May 12 tour of six unusual homes designed for the Belvedere area.

CURRIED EGGS

Make a cream sauce to which you add a small amount of curry powder and a wine glass of sherry. Add halved hard boiled eggs and heat in chafing dish. Top with strips of crisp bacon just before serving. Use about a dozen and a half eggs for 12 persons. Season with salt and pepper to your own taste.

"I have no formal recipe for this," says Mrs. Tredway. "I just make it as I go along," expressing that creative attitude which is so often the mark of the experienced epicure.

Try This Raggedy Almond Brittle

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—With almond prices at their lowest in 4 years, now's the time to make raggedy almond brittle. Rinse 1 cup of seedless raisins and drain thoroughly. Combine with 6 cups of crisp corn flakes, 1 cup of coarsely chopped roasted unblanched almonds and warm in oven.

Boil a mixture of 2 cups of sugar, 1 teaspoon of butter or margarine, ¼ cup of vinegar, ½ cup of water and ½ teaspoon of salt to 300 degrees, on a candy thermometer, or until mixture separates into hard, brittle threads when dropped into cold water. Pour slowly over cereal-nut-fruit mixture, blending lightly and thoroughly. Spread thinly on waxed paper; avoid packing. Break or cut when cool.

Summer Salads Feature Tropical Fruits, Cheese

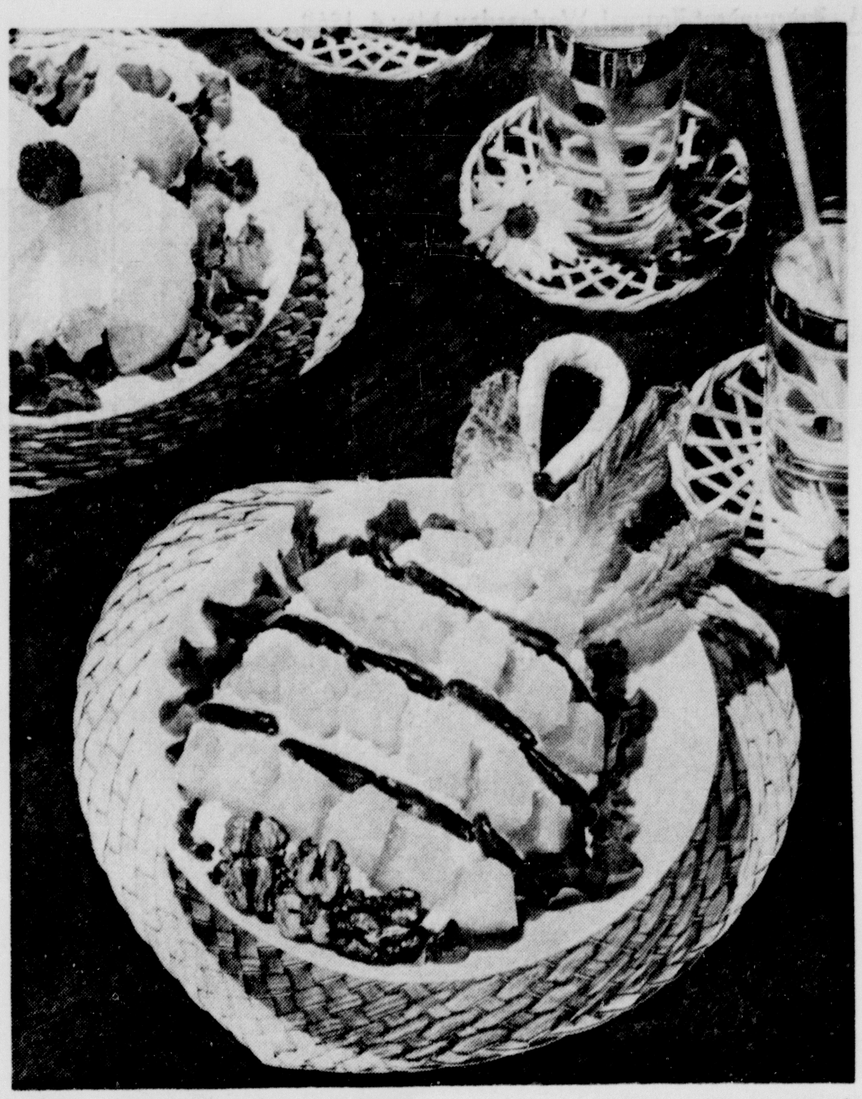
Tropical fruits and cheese combine to make salads par excellence during summer days. The flavors blend perfectly and the calories are few. Served in different ways with interesting garnishes, fruit and cheese salads are popular the year 'round.

For a novel, attractive salad, yet one that is easy to do, arrange pineapple chunks, cottage cheese and dates on a plate to resemble half a fresh pineapple. Romaine leaves make the "pineapple crown." A few walnut halves are a flavorful addition.

PINEAPPLE PICTURE SALAD

1 pint cottage cheese
½ cup chopped dates
¼ cup chopped walnuts
Small leaves of greenery
Shredded lettuce
Pineapple chunks or slices
Date strips and walnut halves
Small romaine leaves

Lightly mix cottage cheese, chopped dates and walnuts. To make the Pineapple Picture Salad, place small leafy greens on salad plate and center with a mound of shredded lettuce. Top with a cup of the mixed cottage cheese. With a spatula, form it to look like a fresh pineapple half. Arrange pineapple chunks in even curved rows on top and separate each row with date strips. Put 3 walnut halves at base of pineapple, 3 romaine leaves for the crown. Serve with French or creamy type dressing.



FRUIT AND Cottage Cheese Salad calls for the combinations of fruit and cheese, arranged on a mound of leafy greens garnished with pineapple chunks. Serve with French or creamy type dressing.

Sesame-Cheese Muffins Give A New And Important Flavor

You'll be proud to introduce these Sesame-Cheese Muffins to your family or guests.

Note that sharp cheddar cheese, minced onion and toasted sesame seeds play an important part in this muffin recipe.

However, Reba Staggs, a home economist well known in the field of recipe development, comments that the shortening called for in this recipe is lard.

It might be to your advantage to give lard an opportunity to prove it self in your kitchen, especially in these Sesame-Cheese Muffins. However, lard is used in all types of baking, so see for yourself the great "shortening power" lard has to offer.

SESAME-CHEESE MUFFINS

2 cups sifted enriched flour
1 tablespoon baking powder
¾ teaspoon salt
6 tablespoons lard
¾ cup finely grated sharp cheddar cheese
½ cup finely minced onion
1 tablespoon lard
½ cup milk
1 egg, beaten
2 tablespoons sesame seeds, toasted
2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine

Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Cut in 6 tablespoons lard until mixture has a fine even crumb. Add half the cheese to the mixture and mix lightly. Cook onion in 1 tablespoon lard until tender but not brown. Combine onion, milk and beaten egg. Add first mixture and stir until just moistened. (Batter will be stiff.) Fill greased medium-sized muffin pans ⅔ full. Sprinkle tops of muffins with remaining cheese and sesame seeds and spoon about ½ teaspoon melted butter or margarine over each. Bake in hot over (400° F.) 18 to 20 minutes. Yield: 1 dozen medium muffins.

Plan Brunch With Seafood As Main Dish—Refreshing Change

Plan a spring brunch with seafood in crepes as your main dish.

Crepes Crab Bengal is gourmet fare that can be prepared an hour or two ahead of time, is as refrshing a change from the usual brunch menu as spring is after winter.

The crepes—you can make them from a pancake mix to save time—can be run under the broiler just before serving or kept warm in a chafing dish right on your table.

Begin your brunch with an Hawaiian Fruit Compote—freshly sliced oranges and pineapple chunks garnished with fresh strawberries. Instead of spring flowers, create an edible centerpiece of the fruit, placing it in a tall serving dish, then surrounding the dish with whole pineapples, citrus fruits and apples.

Baked tomato halves complement the crepes, add color to each serving. Top off your brunch with fresh coffee cake baked the day before.

Here are your recipes:

CREPES CRAB BENGAL
(Serves 6)

White Sauce—
3 tablespoons butter
3 tablespoons flour
½ teaspoon salt
1½ cups milk

Melt butter; remove from heat; stir in flour, salt and milk. Cook, stirring until the mixture is smooth. Cool slowly.

1. Melt butter; in it saute onion and crabmeat 5 minutes or until golden.

2. Add wine, curry powder, Worcestershire, salt, pepper and cayenne. Cook stirring, about 5 minutes to reduce liquid.

3. Stir in 1 cup white sauce; reserve rest of sauce.

GLACE

¼ cup heavy cream, whipped

Combine white sauce and heavy cream.

To assemble Crepes:

1. Make 12 small thin pancakes (crepes) from favorite recipe or using a pancake mix.

2. Fill crepes with Crabmeat Filling; spread tops with glace; sprinkle lightly with grated Parmesan cheese; run under broiler to brown.

BAKED TOMATO HALF

4 tomatoes
Prepared mustard

FRESH APPLE COFFEE CAKE

2 cups sifted cake flour
4 tablespoons double-acting baking powder
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ cup butter
½ cup granulated sugar
1 egg
1 cup milk
3 to 4 apples, thinly sliced
½ teaspoon cinnamon
¼ cup sugar

1. Heat oven to 375° F.

2. Sift flour with baking powder and salt.

3. Cream butter with ½ cup sugar until light and fluffy; add egg; beat well.

4. On low speed (if using electric mixer), add flour mixture and milk alternately, beating after each addition.

5. Turn batter into greased 9" cake pan. Arrange apple slices overlapping in circular pattern on cake batter. Sprinkle with cinnamon combined with ¼ cup sugar. Bake 30 minutes.

Meal Curtain Call Features Cherry Dessert

For the coming July 4, 1960 celebration, home economist and recipe expert Reba Staggs has this recipe to offer. It's called Cherry Dumplings. Served hot, they can be topped with cream or ice cream.

This dessert specialty is prepared in a frying-pan or electric skillet and simmered 18 to 20 minutes. The dumplings feature lard as the shortening.

CHERRY DUMPLINGS

1 can (16 ounces) red sour pitted cherries
¾ cup sugar
1 cup sifted enriched flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
¼ teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons sugar
3 tablesoons lard
1 egg, slightly beaten
½ cup milk
½ teaspoon vanilla
½ teaspoon almond extract
2 tablespoons butter or margarine

Boil cherries and sugar in a frying-pan for 3 minutes. Sift together flour, baking powder, salt and sugar. Cut lard into dry ingredients until crumbs are about the size of small peas. Combine egg, milk, vanilla and almond extract. Add to dry ingredients, mixing only until moistened. Add butter or margarine to cherry sauce and bring it to a boil. Stir well. Drop dumplings by spoonfuls into boiling cherry sauce, making 6 to 8 dumplings. Cover tightly, reduce heat and simmer 18 to 20 minutes. Serve hot. Top with cream, if desired. Yield: 6 to 8 dumplings.

200 At Opening Of Harbor Point Club

Good weather conspired to make the Harbor Point Beach Club Open House on Sunday a real success. Founding members, many who were out on the opening day of the yacht season, caught the gay affair at either the beginning or end since it started at 1 o'clock and was still going strong past the 6 o'clock closing hour.

Noted among the crowd of more than 200 who attended were Captain and Mrs. John G. Lewis chatting with the Adrian Malones and their daughter, Sara. Also, in the local contingent were the August Beldens III and their daughter "Noni." Adrian Malone drew the plan for the new clubhouse.

Adding color to the scene was are arrival of Dan London and his wife over from the city in his huge power cruiser "The Adventuress" with their guests, the Albert Millers. Judge and Mrs. Richard Sims took time out from their Rolling Hills home long enough to enjoy a roast beef sandwich.

Incidentally the food was superb. Delicious potato salad and choice of roast beef, turkey or corned beef sandwiches plus draught beer and all kinds of other refreshments accompanied by canapes. Jack McCormick chatting with a group of bachelors was doing a retake on the recent party they staged at the Palace Hotel in San Francisco.

Over from the city were the Kenneth Riches. Commander Marshall Smith brought over his cruiser "Sahiba" with his guests, the Robert Metcalf Jones. Also from the city were the Harold M. Bowens and Dr. and Mrs. John Upton.

Arriving early were the Christian Bucks. Also in the gay party languidly sitting under the umbrellas especially provided for the occasion were the Charles Howard Allens of Ross.

Winning a trophy on the tennis courts was "Bill" Slater whose wife had arranged the matches between the two clubs. Winning the mixed doubles were Sandy Waters and Jane Brown.

A foursome were the Michael Grahams of Belvedere and Tom and Wendy Corn who have recently moved to Tiburon from the city. Thomas Kostic-Harriet Hartman Wed Sunday In Mill Valley Rites

One of the most beautiful weddings of the year in Mill Valley was that Sunday afternoon at the Mill Valley Community Church of Harriet Hartman and Thomas Fred Kostic.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Rodney Benton Hartman, of Mill Valley, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Fred T. Kostic, also of Mill Valley.

The 2 o'clock rites were performed by the Rev. Gordon L. Foster in the presence of 200 guests.

For her May Day wedding Harriett chose a yellow and white color scheme, which was carried out at the church in yellow and white gladioli and iris, white delphinium and many candles.

When the bride walked down the aisle on the arm of her father, she was wearing a floor length gown of white silk peau de soie with chapel train falling from a bustle back. Fashioned on princess lines, the gown had short sleeves and a boat neckline trimmed with chaste pearl and crystal embroidery.

Especially designed for her was a long fingertip double circle veil of imported illusion net held by a coronet of orange blossoms and pearls, to which a face of veil was attached. She wore long white gloves and carried a cascade of phalaenopsis orchids.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Donald Trauner of San Francisco, and bridesmaids were three of Harriet's former classmates at Stanford University. They were her cousin, Mrs. Dale Newcomb of Los Angeles, Gail Stevens of Delavin Lake, Wis., and Lynne Davidson of Lafayette, Calif.

Gowned identically, they wore bouffant frocks of white silk organza having short sleeves and round necklines, and were accented with daffodil yellow cummerbunds tied in back with big bows. On their hair they wore white horsehair picture hats trimmed with circlets of yellow flowers and green leaves at the crowns. Their flowers were cascades of yellow roses.

Flower girl was Suzanne Foley, the bridegroom's niece, of Mercer Island, Wash., who was dainty in a white organdy frock, and on her hair she wore a circlet of flowers matching her nosegay of mixed flowers.

Carl A. Kuhn of San Francisco served the bridegroom as best man, and escorting guests to their seats were the bride's only brother, John Nicholas Hartman, Curtis Hoffman of Mill Valley, and the bridegroom's nephew, Thomas Foley of Mercer Island.

Mrs. Hartman, who is this year's president of the Outdoor Art Club in Mill Valley, attended her daughter's wedding in a jade green silk chiffon gown fashioned with draped bodice and slim skirt having back panels. She completed her costume with white gloves and white flowered hat swathed in jade green veiling. Cymbidium orchids were pinned to her purse.

The mother of the bridegroom was attired in a beige peau de soie gown and cocoa brown hat, and her accessories matched her hat. A brown slipper orchid was pinned to her purse.

Among those attending the wedding was the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Thomas L. Harris of Mill Valley, who was dressed in gray lace, and the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Raymond P. Foley, of Mercer Island.

Following the ceremony the young people greeted their guests at the Outdoor Art Clubhouse, which was transformed into a woodland scene with six big madrone trees in bloom, rocks, moss, white iris and hydrangeas.

On the punch table were two milk glass containers filled with white snapdragons and yellow strike roses.

Music for dancing was provided by a three-piece orchestra. Gail Gronsky, another of Harriet's former classmates, was in charge of the guestbook.

When the new Mrs. Kostic left for the honeymoon, she was wearing a gray plaid suit with white hat and black patent accessories, and her corsage was of red tipped white carnations.

After a leisurely motor trip to West Virginia, with stop at Carmel, the Kostics will remain in West Virginia, while the bridegroom serves as a second lieutenant in the U.S. Army at Ft. Lee, Va. When he completes this tour of duty, they plan to live in San Francisco.

The bride was graduated from the Katharine Branson School at Ross and from Stanford University with a bachelor of arts degree. Thomas is a graduate of Tamalpais High School and of Stanford with a bachelor of science degree.

ALMANAC

Today is Wednesday, May 4, the 125th day of the year, with 241 more in 1960.

The moon is approaching its full phase.

The morning stars are Mars, Jupiter and Saturn.

On this day in history:

In 1626, Dutch colonizer Peter Minuit landed on Manhattan Island.

In 1796, educational reformer Horace Mann was born.

In 1855, the first hospital in the world operated exclusively for women opened in New York City.

In 1886, Chicago was the scene of the Haymarket Square riot.

In 1942, the Battle of the Coral Sea began.

A thought for today: American educator Horace Mann said in a commencement address at Antioch College in 1859: "Be ashamed to die until you have won some victory for humanity."

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce United States Coast and Geodetic Survey, Western District headquarters. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

TO MAY 7

Fair Prize Would Aid Korea School

A Korean school for the blind will be the real winner if the Shipmates group of the San Anselmo Presbyterian Church wins a prize this year for its exhibit at the Marin Art and Garden Fair.

The group is one of 10 non-professional organizations entering the amateur garden section of the 15th annual Marin Art and Garden Fair, June 30-July 4 in Ross.

Each year the Shipmates group of the church's Mariners married couples club sends $120 to Heavenly Light Village in Taejon, Korea, to aid in education and rehabilitation of blind Korean children and adults. Prize money from the group's exhibit last year, when it tied for first place, helped to make up the annual contribution.

This year their model garden, planned around a barbecue area and table setting, will compete for an award with at least one other group in the "barbecue" category.

First prize, from state premium money, is $175; second prize, $160; third, $150.

There is no entry fee and there still are a few openings for garden clubs and miscellaneous organizations in the seven amateur garden categories.

Foster Parent Unit Chooses Officers

I. Paul Chavez, a civil engineer with the Federal Power Commission, has been elected president of the Marin County Foster Parents Assn. to succeed Mrs. Richard Aldrich.

Chevez, who resides at 214 DuBois avenue, San Rafael, was vice president of the organization last year.

Also elected on the 1960-61 slate were Albert Leslie of 140 Grove avenue, Corte Madera, vice president; Mrs. Helen Munn of 34 Dorset lane, Mill Valley, secretary; Mrs. Helen Raga of 457 Laurel avenue, San Anselmo, treasurer.

The new officers will be installed at a barbecue meeting June 4.

Lincoln Letters

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP) — Two unpublished letters written by Abraham Lincoln have been willed to the University of Illinois library by the late Miss Sarah Elizabeth Bryan, Los Angles.

The letters, which Lincoln wrote in Springfield, Ill., were addressed to Miss Bryan's grandfather, D. A. Cheever, in Tremont, Ill.

One dated Aug. 9, 1858, expresses Lincoln's regret that he couldn't accept an invitation to appear in Tremont.

The other letter, dated Aug. 19, 1859, replied to a request that Lincoln suggest a newspaper editor for Tremont.

Mothers Of New Babies Need Help, Shortcuts And Time Off

Is your first baby due soon? Lucky you!

You've many strenuous weeks ahead, but they'll be wonderful weeks. Here are some suggestions for mothers when they come home from the hospital with their first babies:

Get Help: You'll be tired. The stay at the hospital won't be long enough for you to rest up. Your body still will be making some pretty drastic adjustments. So take it easy. The more rest you get the first two weeks the sooner you'll be back on your feet. If possible, hire a helper. If you can't do that, get your relatives to pitch in. Your husband should do more housework than he's doing now.

Use shortcuts: Find the easy ways to do your jobs. Have plenty of formula prepared in advance, for example. Then you won't have to stagger around preparing it at 3 a.m. When you feed the baby put your feet up and try to relax. Take a nap each afternoon. Rest before you get tired. Some specialists say it is not having the baby that ages you but working too hard after the baby is born.

Follow doctor's orders: You'll be given a diet. Be sure to follow it. If you are nursing your baby you'll need to get lots of liquids, and good fresh foods and meat. Don't try to reduce. Don't overeat, either. Be sure to do the exercises your doctor gives you. They'll help your figure get back to normal.

Arrange time off: You'll be confined as you've never been confined before. You'll need relief. Get a reliable baby sitter and take a little time off each week. Go to a friend's house with your husband and play bridge, or to a club meeting. You can't be gone very long. But a couple of hours will refresh you.

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "My girl is 14. She wants to spend the coming summer with her friends at the shore. Both good and bad young people will be around. Should I let her go?"

J.D.C.

(A) Not unless she will be under the control of a responsible chaperone. Each summer many young girls get into trouble loafing with beach or shore gangs.

Measles And Mumps Still Top Diseases

Measles and mumps, which have raged for months among Marin County children, show no letup, according to latest reports to the county health department.

Fifty-seven new cases of measles and 39 of mumps were reported last week, Dr. Carolyn B. Albrecht, county health officer, disclosed today.

Larkspur was hit heaviest by measles, with 21 new cases. San Rafael had 14; Novato, 11.

San Rafael and Novato each had 11 new cases of mumps to lead the swollen gland parade. Mill Valley, which reported no new measles cases, came next in the number of mumps cases with six.

There was a sharp upturn in streptococcic infections with 13 new cases reported, eight of them in San Anselmo.

Work Started On Marin Apartments

Construction of Corte Madera's largest apartment development began this week at 711 Meadowsweet drive.

The 28-unit apartment structure is being built by Billings-Hutchison Co. of Corte Madera. It consists of four detached buildings, each three stories high, around a rectangular garden area. Plans call for future construction of a pool in the center area.

The apartments will be spacious and all-electric, including heat. The buildings are of modern fire-resistant construction.

Harold B. Wagstaff of Corte Madera is the designer.

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

TWO FIRSTS — When Barbara Simon's comedy "One in Every Family" opens at the Henry C. Hall School in Larkspur Friday at 8:30 p.m. it will mark the achieving of two firsts: the premier performance of a playwright's first play and the first time the Twin Cities Troupers perform for a Marin audience. Maureen Brady and Toby Manuel are pictured in a rehearsal scene.

Twin Cities Troupers To Present First Play

A playwright's first play will be the first production presented by the newly formed Twin Cities Troupers little theater group at 8:30 p.m. Friday and Saturday and again May 13-14 at Henry C. Hall School in Larkspur.

The play, "One in Every Family," written by Mrs. Barbara Simon of Corte Madera, tells the story of the trials a family faces when eccentric relatives come for a weekend visit.

Mrs. Simon, a native of San Francisco, has been a Marin County resident for 14 years. Her father was Gene Bowles, San Francisco newspaperman. formances.

The Twin Cities Troupers group was formed under the auspices of the Larkspur-Corte Madera Recreation Commission.

Appearing in the cast are Karleen Fraser, Sherwin Harris, Rich Simon, Blanch van den Akker, Ray Osborn, Maureen Brady, Frank Allen, Mimi Ingraham, Toby Manuel, Linda Riordan, Virginia Cumming. Bertha Kopf and Cecille Evans. Tickets will be available at Gelardi's Gift Shop, Larkspur, and at the door before per-

State Names 'Watchdog' On Assessments

The state Board of Equalization has appointed a chief to head a "watchdog committee" which will make periodic checks of all counties, including Marin, to make sure assessed values in each county do not veer too far from the statewide average.

Abram F. Goldman, who has been assistant chief appraiser in the Los Angeles County assessor's office, was named as chief of the intercounty equalization division of the Board of Equalization yesterday.

Goldman will direct a staff of some 60 persons reviewing property tax assessment practices. By means of systematic sampling and appraisal methods specified in 1959 legislation, this group annually estimates the total market value of locally assessable property in each county for comparison with the corresponding value entered upon the tax roll.

When the radio thus developed differs materially from the statewide average, the county roll must be changed to conform to the prevalent practice. These data are also used to promote equitable apportionment of more than 150 million dollars a year in state aid among California's 1,705 school districts.

Marin County Assessor Bert W. Broemmel has already started a system of continual reappraisal to keep assessed values in all parts of the county up to date.

2 Marinites Win Catholic Awards

Two Marin County residents have been accepted for Archbishop's Youth Awards in connection with the Catholic Youth Organization program, Archbishop John J. Mitty of the San Francisco Roman Catholic Diocese announced today.

The two are Mrs. Arthur Fay of 10 Mission avenue, San Rafael, a member of St. Raphael's Parish, and Mrs. Robert E. Schmale of 117 Locust avenue, Larkspur, a member of St. Patrick's Parish.

The awards will be presented at a dinner next Tuesday evening in the Fairmont Hotel in San Francisco.

More state names begin with M and N than any other letters.

YOUR HEALTH IS OUR Rx BUSINESS!

Several weeks ago we placed a message to you which was superimposed over a listing of prescription drugs. Since that time you have written, called and stopped in for a complete list of these drugs unmarked by any other message. Though we remind you that such a list is only a minute portion of prescription possibilities—and of no use unless your doctor is prescribing these specific drugs for you—we do have to agree that it is possibly the largest list ever published for public information and comparison.

Since we maintain that not only is the customer right—but he has rights, we bow to your requests. Here is the complete list in full. If its value is only an aid to a relatively few of you—then we feel it is a worthwhile expense. Remember that this is only a measuring stick of a few prescription drugs in our stock—that gives you an idea of what we charge for all prescriptions. The comparison is up to you.
